CENTRELLA LEAGUE

Stewarts Coffee with the Championship handed their opponents, known as the House Wife's Friend, the last three games of the schedule which permitted the Linco team to end in 6th place in the league.

Gebhardt's Eagles, by winning 2 out of their 3 games with the Town Criers, captured second place due to the failure of Old Monk, Manor House and Kraft-Phenix to shake off defeat at the hands of teams in the second division.

Season Sees Many Up-Sets

In reviewing the games rolled throughout the season one cannot help but reflect on the downfall of the strong early contender for the championship, the Town Crier Flour team. When these boys hit the skids they never did recover although they led the league most of the first half of the season.

Linco, another championship contender, suffered the loss of many games during the absence of their captain, Edwin F. Rugen, who went south on a vacation after the holidays.

Gebhardt's Eagles and Old Monk were the two teams picked at the beginning of the second half of the series to win the top honors.

Kraft-Phenix and Manor House were always looked upon as strong contenders for the championship honors.

High individual score, 3 games, Frank Waber of Gebhardt's Eagles with a total of 626.

Second high individual score, 3 games, Al Pearson of Stewarts Coffee with a total of 617.

Sweepstakes at Bleser's Thursday

With the schedule finished and a Thursday evening open at the alleys, it was the unanimous decision of all the bowlers to stage a "free for all sweepstakes" next Thursday evening.

All bowlers registered in the Centrella Bowling League are cordially invited to enter the sweepstakes and help to close the season at Bleser's Bowling Academy.

The officials and members of the league wish to publicly express their complete satisfaction and appreciation to Phil Bleser and his associates for the manner in which the league's schedule was conducted at Bleser's Bowling Academy.

ScotTowels, Peacock "400 Club" and Wilson's Ideal Dogs have some comfort in knowing that Stewarts Coffee, a team that no one picked for the title earlier in the season, came through with colors flying to claim the championship.
