

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Loretta White Wed in a Chiffon Gown Trimmed in Pearls

At the home of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Cauthorne White, 310 Richmond road, Kenilworth, Miss Loretta White became the bride of Charles Peter Jaeger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Seyfarth of Highland Park, last Saturday evening. The bride passed down an aisle formed of candelabra and two white rose trees to a background of huckleberry where the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert Willett of the Kenilworth Union church.

She wore a gown of white chiffon made with a yoke trimmed in pearl beading, and a cap of beaded chiffon from which fell a long white tulle veil. Her flowers were white orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. John W. Hubbell of New York, the matron of honor and only attendant of the bride, was gowned in aquamarine blue mousseline-de-soie and wore delphinium in her hair. She carried a small tight bouquet of deep red roses edged with delphinium.

With her dress of aquamarine lace Mrs. White wore a shoulder bouquet of orchids with deep dubonnet centers. Mrs. Seyfarth's flowers also were orchids and her dress of shell pink chiffon.

The bridegroom's brother, Harold H. Jaeger, was the best man, and his step-brothers, Hugh M. and Robert M. Seyfarth, ushered.

Wearing a dubonnet going-away costume Mrs. Jaeger, and her husband, left for the east to sail for Bermuda where they will honeymoon for three weeks. When they return they will live in Bannockburn.

Honeymoon Takes Her to Bermuda

Charles Peter Jaeger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Seyfarth of Highland Park, and his bride, the former Loretta White, daughter of Mrs. Thomas C. White of 310 Richmond road, Kenilworth, have sailed for Bermuda on their wedding trip following their marriage Saturday, June 12. When they return they will make their home in Bannockburn. The bride's gown, of white chiffon, was trimmed with a yoke of pearls. A cap beaded in pearls held in place a floating veil of tulle, and she carried orchids and lilies of the valley.

DuBois—The Drake

Predict 1947 Modes at N. U. Settlement Annual Style Show

Having entertained their audience with a showing of styles of a decade earlier, at their annual style show last year, the members of the Winnetka board of Northwestern university settlement are planning a still more novel feature for this year's show, to be held September 25, at Skokie school. One of the committees, with Mrs. Howard W. Fenton at its head, is busy with ideas for presenting the fashions of 1947 forecasting their conception of the vogue of that period.

These and other plans for this annual event were announced Monday at a luncheon at the Woman's Athletic club by the publicity chairman, Mrs. Whipple Jacobs, her co-chairman, Mrs. W. Ogden Coleman, Mrs. John P. Hooker, chairman of the show, and the co-chairman, Mrs. Harold O. Barnes.

Other chairmen for the show include Mrs. Austin Jenner and Mrs. Edwin C. Price, models; Mrs. Martin Lindsay and Mrs. Robert S. Laird, luncheon; Mrs. Harold Wilder and Mrs. Edward B. Hall, program; Mrs. William S. Warfield, III, and Mrs. Calvin Selridge, dressing room; Mrs. Rawleigh Warner and Mrs. Clarence Randall, invitations; Mrs. Richard A. Aishton, tickets; Mrs. Ernst Von Ammon and Mrs. Robert Butz, stage, and Mrs. N. Landon Hoyt, Jr., and Mrs. W. Edwin Smith, exhibitors.

Rockford Club Plans Tea for 1937 Seniors

The Chicago Rockford College club is having a tea for 1937 seniors at the Chicago College club, 196 East Delaware place, Saturday, June 19, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Entertainment will be provided, with Mrs. Arthur Byfield of Highland Park, the soloist. Because it is the last meeting of the year, a short business session will be held.

Among the seniors invited is Miss Jeanne Stout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stout of Winnetka.

Hostesses for the afternoon are Miss Ann Petersen, Mrs. William R. Bawden, Mrs. Earl Hathaway, Mrs. Harlan Jones, Mrs. Earl C. Lutz, Mrs. Robert Neier, Miss Emelie Banning, and the president, Mrs. Robert N. Hartman.

Dinner Host Friday

A. J. Nystrom, 714 Central avenue, will be host at a dinner party at Shawnee Country club, Friday evening of this week. He will entertain the board of directors of the Lincoln Belmont Y. M. C. A. Mr. Nystrom is a member of the board.

Kildeer Country Club Observes Guest Day

Guest day at Kildeer Country club Tuesday of this week attracted a crowd of eighty-five women golfers, forty-five of whom were non-members. Prizes for members and guests were given, for the former group, for low gross on six short holes, the winner of first being Mrs. Doyle. For second low gross three members tied, Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Kinkaid, and Mrs. Todd, the prize given to Mrs. Watts, the one with the highest handicap.

Prizes for guests were awarded for low gross on the odd holes, Mrs. Cook of Westmoreland winning that event. The prize for low putts went to Mrs. Pound, the guest of Mrs. Poehlman.

A buffet luncheon was served following the game, and sixteen tables of bridge were in play on the porch in the afternoon.

The women's golf event for next Tuesday will bring prizes for the choice of best nine holes, and for low gross in classes A, B, and C.

Tennis Matches, Bridge, Dancing, at Country Club At Graduation of Miss Betty Turck

A summer formal dinner dance is on the calendar of the Country Club of Evanston for Friday evening of this week, and the following Friday a dance for the college set will be held.

Afternoon bridge every Monday at 2, and the matches in the North Shore Tennis league played every Sunday afternoon in June on the club's courts at 3 o'clock, are other events of this month for members and guests.

On June 20, the tennis match will be with Knollwood club, with the Ravinia Tennis club on June 27. On June 6, the contest was with Exmoor, on the following Sunday with Indian Hill club.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Halversen of 2017 Chestnut avenue, have with them their niece, Miss Helen Lundgren of Chicago. Miss Lundgren is recuperating from an appendectomy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. V. Turck of 522 Linden avenue, with their son, Joseph, Jr., who was visiting them for a few days, attended the commencement exercises at the University of Illinois, Monday, where Miss Betty Turck was graduated. Miss Turck is a member of Pi Delta Phi and Kappa Delta Pi. She plans to leave Wednesday with two of her sorority sisters, Miss Betty Booth of Chicago Heights and Miss Adelaide Dadant of Hamilton, Wis., on a month's tour of the Pacific coast. Her brother, Joseph, Jr., returned Wednesday to Ames, Iowa.

Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Powers, 307 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, entertained at a buffet dinner and bridge party Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. Powers' birthday.