Editor, WILMETTE LIFE:

In the issue of WILMETTE LIFE for June 11, there appeared a brief article on the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. This article was entitled, "Judge Clifford P. Smith Christian Science Leader." Judge Smith is the new president, elected to serve for a period of one year, but he is not the leader of Christian Science. Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science is known and acknowledged by Christian Scientists as their one and only leader.

In the Manual of The Mother Church, Article XXII, Section 2, under the heading "A Member not a Leader," occurs the following statement: "A member of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., shall not be called Leader by members of this Church, when this term is used in connection with Christian Science."

Sincerely yours,

Harold Molter,

Pharmacy Ethics

By D. S. Lyman

Lyman Pharmacy

Every profession has its code of ethics.

This applies to pharmacy as rigidly as to the profession of medicine, of which it is the true counterpart.

For example, an ethical druggist will not prescribe for you over his counter. It is unwise to ask him to step out of his profession. Diagnosis is your doctor's job.

The skilled, conscientious pharmacist co-operates only after you have advice from your doctor. His skill applies to the thorough, careful compounding of a physician's prescription.

Consult your doctor if your health fails in the slightest particular. Take his prescription to a reliable druggist for execution. Follow the doctor's advice absolutely.

Illinois Assemblywoman Seeks Ancestor's Grave in Capital Cemeteries

That Mrs. Bernice T. Van der Vries, 968 Pine street, Winnetka, and member of the Illinois general assembly at Springfield from the seventh district (Chicago suburbs), has an ancestor who, more than a century ago, settled in Sangamon county, near the present state capital, was revealed last week in "State House Notes," a column conducted by Bill Day in the Illinois State Journal, Springfield daily.

The ancestor, Mr. Day declared, is Barzilla (or Basel) Clark, a revolutionary soldier, born in Pennsylvania about 1750. Nancy, his wife, was also a war hero, and she was at one time confined in a fort for two weeks where she lived on parched corn and water.

Clark, a private in the Pennsylvania militia, was about 70 years old, according to Mr. Day, when he moved to Sangamon county. He, his wife, and seven children, were among the early settlers of that portion of the state. Clark died in 1840 and his widow three years later.

Mrs. Van der Vries, a native of Kansas, knew about Clark when she applied for membership several years ago in the Daughters of the American Revolution.

It was only recently that Mrs. Van der Vries received a letter asking her for information about the location of the grave of her ancestor. Thus far, she has not been able to discover in which Sangamon county cemetery his body lies. She will, she declared, be indebted to anyone who can tell her where Basel Clark is buried.

Allan Stahl Has Part in Music School Fete

Allan Stahl, of Wilmette, took part in the three-day festival, June 23-25, of the Chicago Musical college, where he is a student. The festival was staged by faculty, students and alumni from cities throughout the country to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the school's founding by Dr. Florenz Ziegfeld, Sr., father of the originator of the Follies. Dr. Rudolph Ganz, noted pianist and conductor, is now president of the college.

A CORRECTION

An item in last week's issue of this paper announcing the fishing trip into Canada upon which Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Schenk of 1601 Central avenue are to start today (Thursday), incorrectly stated that they are to take the train as far as Hudson Bay and from there charter a plane to take them to Cliff Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Schenk are flying to Winnipeg, taking the train from there to Hudson, and from Hudson chartering a plane to take them to Cliff Lake, the only way the lake can be reached. WILMETTE LIFE regrets its error.

Robert Edmonds of 1935 Greenwood avenue left the first of the week with his sister and her son, Mrs. Norman Dally and Norman, Jr., of Glenview. They motored to the east and plan to be there until August 1. Jack Edmonds left Sunday with James Hall of Rogers Park on a motor trip to the Black Hills and Denver, returning home in about two weeks.

Association Is Boon to Prospective Home Builders anywhere, loans are restricted to strictly high grade real estate first mortgages in the local territory. Mr. Clifton stated that the Wilmette association has shared largely in the progress noted throughout the state. The report from which the figures are taken is given herewith:

Home Building Progresses

"Reports of the 96 Federal savings and loan associations in Illinois show that home building continues to set a fast pace in this state.

"Direct mortgage loans for construction, purchase, reconditioning, and refinancing of residential dwellings in Illinois, made by these associations, increased heavily during the past twelve months, the reports revealed. These loans totaled $34,987,927 on June 1, 1936; the total had risen to $47,562,823 on June 1, this year, an increase of $12,574,896.

Pay Like Rent

"A direct reduction loan is one in which the principal is continually reduced by easy monthly payments like rent until the borrower owns his home free of debt.

"Assets and savings of these associations likewise showed large increases during the twelve-month period. Assets jumped from $50,050,052 to $77,338,573, or $27,288,521 in new assets. Savings increased from $28,204,255 to $34,897,866, making $6,693,611 in new private invested funds. Savings accounts increased in number from 34,734 to 44,228, or 9,494 new account of investors.

"Savings of investors in all Federals and in many state chartered associations in the United States are protected through insurance up to $5,000 on each account by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance corporation.
