

Wins Honorable Mention in "Sea Poem" Contest

Adele Jordan Tarr, 1604 Central avenue, Wilmette, the poet, has been awarded second place in the Beulah May Sea Poem contest conducted by the International Order of Book-fellows. Previously it has been announced on this page that Adelaide Love of Kenilworth placed first in the contest and won the twenty-five dollar prize.

Honorable mention went to only a few of the 250 contestants. The membership of the order is made of poets and writers from all states of the union and from abroad.

"The Song of the Seven Seas" is the title of the ballad submitted by Mrs. Tarr and its theme is memories of those lost on the deep.

Mrs. Love's prize winning poem, a sonnet entitled "The Sea," appears in the June issue of The Step Ladder, organ of the Order of Book-fellows.

Miss Frances Goodhue of 245 Linden avenue had as her houseguest last week, Miss Hazel Russell of Oregon, Wis. Miss Russell is a former resident of Wilmette.
