

Comes to North Shore for N. T. Graduation

Cy MacKinnon, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. B. MacKinnon of Kenilworth, returned from Dartmouth college recently and spent several days as the guest of north shore friends while attending the graduation of his brother, Ben, from New Trier High school. Ben has been awarded a scholarship at Princeton for next year. After graduation the boys left for El Dorado, Kas., to spend the summer with their aunt. Cecelia MacKinnon, who has been attending Sweet Briar college in Virginia, stopped in St. Louis to visit on her way to El Dorado.

RANCH VACATION

Miss Margaret Raymond, daughter of the Anan Raymonds, 547 Roslyn road, Kenilworth, left by train Tuesday with a party of north shore girls for Timberline ranch in Arizona where she will spend six weeks. Her brother, Spencer Henry Raymond, has gone to Camp Kooch-I-Ching near International Falls, Minn., for six weeks.

GUIDE-LECTURE TOURS

Guide-lecture tours for the general public at Field Museum of Natural History next week are offered on the following schedule: general tours of anthropological, botanical, geological and zoological exhibits at 11 a. m. daily (Monday to Friday inclusive), and also at 3 p. m. on Thursday, and special tours at 3 p. m. as follows: Monday, "Plant Life"; Tuesday, "Primitive and Civilized Peoples"; Wednesday, "Animal Groups," and Friday, "Minerals, and Prehistoric Life." These tours, conducted by staff lecturers, are open to all Museum visitors. Parties assemble inside the north entrance.
