

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

First Congregational

John G. Hindley, minister

Morning Worship 11 A. M. Sunday morning. Mr. Hindley has returned to his pulpit and will preach on "The God Who Speaks." The music is in charge of Miss Emily Roberts and the soloist is William Ross of the church quartet.

Prelude—"The Bells of St. Ann" Russell
Solo—"My Soul Is Athirst for God" Gaul
Offertoire Solo—"The Lord Is My Light" Allitsen
Postlude—"Toccata in D Minor" Bach

Sunday, September 19, is Registration day in the Church school. The five major departments, pre-school, primary, junior, intermediate and senior will all resume activities with Open Session General Assembly and time out for listing and record-making.

The new student minister, Robert Edgar, takes up his duties September 19, and Nancy Drake Edgar will be secretary at the church office.

The Woman's Guild will hold an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. E. J. McIlraith, 1127 Chestnut avenue, on Friday, September 24.

The Men's Golf Tournament is scheduled for Wednesday, September 22.

The Fall Reunion dinner will be held the first week in October. Brewer Eddy, traveler and Christian statesman, has been secured as speaker for this special occasion. This Church Night is set for Friday, October 8.

The new front steps and platforms have won much favorable comment for their commodious and substantial character. It is expected that appropriate landscaping will give this historic triangle an added loveliness.

Choir rehearsals will be resumed Thursday, September 16.
Girls' choir: 3:30-4 o'clock.
Boys' choir: 4-4:30 o'clock.
Senior choir: 7:15-8:30 o'clock.
Prospective choir members are cordially invited to attend these rehearsals.

Methodist Church

Wilmette avenue at Lake avenue
Rev. Amos Thornburg, minister

Next Sunday is the first Sunday of fall. The minister will be in the pulpit, and new hopes for the new year will be included in the service. It is hoped that all members and friends will be back from vacations and will be in their pews. The Chorus choir will lead in the music of the service. Let us plan to fill the sanctuary at 10:45 o'clock and make of September 12 a real "Rally Sunday."

The special music for our rally service next Sunday morning will be as follows:

Organ (10:45)—
"Offertoire" Dubois
"Festive Prelude" Faulkes
Marie Briel
Introit—"The Lord Is in His Holy Temple" Harrington
Anthem—"Blessed Art Thou, O Lord" Monestel
Offertory Solo—Selected
Organ Postlude—"Alleluia" Bossi

The Church school will resume activities next Sunday morning, at 9:30 o'clock. All former pupils are urged to be present, and new pupils of all ages (from the Nursery to the Adult department) will be welcomed. Thomas H. West is the general superintendent.

There is a nursery where parents may leave small children during the worship service. Mrs. Roy Haskin is in charge.

The Fourth Quarterly conference and September meeting of the Official Board will be held Monday evening, September 13, at 8 o'clock in the Junior room. The entire membership of the church is invited to attend the Quarterly conference meeting and to hear the reports of the year's work. All who have reports to make are asked to have them ready in writing by that time. Dr. A. T.

Stephenson, our district superintendent, will preside at the Quarterly conference.

The Junior Guild will meet Monday evening, September 13, at 8 o'clock in the Woman's room.

There will be no meeting of the Woman's Missionary society as scheduled for today (September 9). Instead, an open evening meeting is being arranged, the date and program to be announced later.

The first of the series of Book Reviews, sponsored by the Woman's Guild, will be held September 17. Eleanor Ellis Perkins will review "And So Victoria." Mrs. Clifford Ives is the chairman of Book Reviews. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Guild.

The Chorus choir will meet tonight (Thursday) at 8 o'clock in the Junior room, under the direction of Miss Marie Briel. This is the first rehearsal of the season, and it is hoped that all members will be in attendance. Also, new voices are wanted and needed. If you sing, and would like to serve your church in this manner, please see Miss Briel on Thursday evening.

A Rummage sale will be sponsored by the Woman's Guild on Thursday and Friday, October 21 and 22. Mrs. C. Rollin Smith, Wilmette 3682, is the chairman. This is to be the only Rummage sale of the year, and all members and friends are urged to donate as many articles as possible. Rummage may be brought to the church basement at any time, or will be picked up if you notify Mrs. Smith.

The following Divisions of the Woman's Guild will meet Thursday, September 16:

First—10 A. M.—Luncheon, Mrs. Vernon Faxon, 1018 Eleventh street.
Second—10 A. M.—Luncheon, Mrs. L. E. Penberthy, 1524 Wilmette avenue.
Third—10 A. M.—Luncheon, Mrs. Jean L. Ransom, 2404 Hartzell avenue, Evanston.
Fourth—10 A. M.—Luncheon, Mrs. R. M. Campbell, 631 Central avenue.

The following divisions will meet on Tuesday, September 21:
Fifth—10 A. M.—Luncheon, Mrs. M. C. Greigg, 727 Central avenue.
Sixth—10 A. M.—Luncheon, Mrs. H. E. Poronto, 901 Elmwood avenue.

The High School Epworth league will hold its first meeting of the season at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening. Mr. Thornburg will be the guest speaker. There will be special music and refreshments. All high school students are welcome to attend.

Wilmette Baptist

Wilmette and Forest avenues
Rev. George D. Allison, pastor

Tomorrow (Friday) the first Fall meeting of the Woman's society will be held at the church at 2 p. m. According to our custom, this takes the form of a "Christmas Party" for Miss Emma Brodbeck, our missionary in China. Gifts should be brought, for which small Christmas envelopes are provided, so that there will be time to send the funds for her use before Christmas. We are very happy to have Miss Brodbeck's mother as our guest. The program will consist of reviews of some of the new books, in charge of Mrs. Edwin Phelps. Mrs. J. C. Blaylock will lead the devotions.

Tonight (Thursday) the officers of our Young People's society are to meet at the home of Virginia Dalstrom, president, 1634 Walnut avenue. Richard Anderson is vice-president; Rose Mary McKeighan, secretary, and Gladys Phelps, Robert Gruhn, and Ruth Mestjian are the group leaders. First meeting will be Sunday at 6 p. m.

Sunday is Reopening Day for our Sunday school boys and girls. Departments meet at 10 o'clock in assembly, at which time there will be announced class and room assignments. As before, the young people remain for the service of worship in the church. Dr. Allison has a new series of talks to boys and girls. His message to the congregation is a call to prayer, entitled "When You Pray."

Our treasurer, W. A. Kendrick, will appreciate the payment of subscriptions by those who have fallen in arrears during summer absences. Many have been faithful in attending and giving, and others will want to resume promptly now that they have returned to town.

Trustees' meeting will be Tuesday evening, September 14, at the church.

The Picnic committee is working on a plan for a general outing on Saturday, September 18, which will give us another opportunity for fellowship in the out-of-doors. John Bailey, Herman Hintzpeter, Ruth Phelps and Gertrude Dean are in charge.

English Lutheran

Seventh street at Greenleaf
"A House of Worship"
The Rev. David R. Kabele, pastor

SUNDAY SERVICES

Church school 9:45 a. m.
Morning worship 11 a. m.
Junior Luther league 3 p. m.
The music for the service of worship next Sunday morning is as follows:
Prelude—"The Sunken Cathedral" Debussy
Anthem—"Build Thee More Stately Mansions" Andrews
The Senior Choir
Solo—"Just for Today" Seaver
Ernest Schaper
Postlude—"The Son of God Goes Forth to War" Whiting

The Church school convenes at 9:45 o'clock on Sunday morning. There are classes for all ages. We invite you to attend our Church school.

The meditation for the services of worship next Sunday morning, the Sixteenth Sunday after Trinity, will be based on the Epistle Lesson for the day, Ephesians 3:13-21. We invite you to worship with us.

The Junior Luther league will meet on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. This is an organization for the young people of high school age.

The Senior choir will resume rehearsal on Thursday evening of this week at the church at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to those with a singing voice to unite with our choir.

The Men's club will meet on Wednesday evening, September 15, at 8 o'clock at the church.

The Woman's society will hold its September sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. S. Smith, 525 Lake avenue, on Thursday afternoon, September 16 at 2 o'clock.

The Junior choir will resume practice on Saturday morning, September 18, at 10 o'clock.

The Confirmation class of 1938 will convene for their first session on Sunday morning, September 19, at 9:45 o'clock. The pastor will be glad to confer with parents of children of Confirmation age.

First Presbyterian

Ninth street at Greenleaf avenue
James T. Veneklasen, minister

At the morning worship service at 11 o'clock, the minister will preach on the theme, "Divine Discontent," and what this should mean in the thinking and living of every one.

The Sunday school will meet in all departments at 9:30 o'clock. Please note that we return to the earlier time, and be in your department room for the opening services.

The Adult Bible class will resume its meetings Sunday at 10 o'clock in the chapel. We will continue the study of the Book of Revelation. All former members of the class are urged to be there, and we cordially invite others to join the class in the study of the Bible.

The Grace Truair Eager Memorial pipe organ, the gift of her husband, Mr. Frank Eager, is being completed and will be dedicated at a special dedication service Friday evening, September 24, at 8 o'clock. The guest organist will be Edgar Nelson, Mus. D., and he will be assisted by the regular organist, Miss Erma Rounds, in a dedication program.

The chancel furniture, the gift of Spoke No. 12 to the church, will be dedicated in a special dedicatory service on Sunday morning, September 26, at 11 o'clock.

Sunday, September 26, will be Rally Day in all organizations and departments of the church.

Our Communion service will be held on Sunday, October 3, and this service will be simultaneous with that of every other Presbyterian church throughout the world.

This church is joining with the other Presbyterian churches of America and other lands in the observance of the Centennial of the Board of Foreign Missions. The pastor of this church is now engaged in special field service for this board until October 31.

St. John's Lutheran

Wilmette and Park avenues
J. H. Gockel, pastor

SERVICES

9:45 a. m.—First service.
9:30 a. m.—Sunday school and Bible classes.
11 a. m.—Second service.

MEETINGS

Ladies' Aid society, today at 2 p. m.
Sunday school stagg, Friday, 7 p. m.; supper, followed by meeting.
Winnetka circle, Friday, 8 p. m., with Mrs. John Dethloff, 892 Elm street.
Choir resumes rehearsals, Monday, 7:45 p. m.
Young Mothers' circle, Monday, 8 p. m., with Mrs. Knobel, 1431 Central avenue.
Voting members, Tuesday, 8 p. m.
Evening circle, Tuesday, 8 p. m., with Mrs. Paul Bayer in the home of Mrs. John Dethloff, 892 Elm street, Winnetka.
First meeting of children's Christian education classes, Wednesday, 4 p. m.

The order of services at 11 o'clock on Sunday will include the following:
Prelude—Fantasia con imitazione, Bach
Solo—"The Lord's Prayer" Malotte
Lolita Bertling Zimmerman
Offertory—Communion Faulkes
The Sermon—"Fall Not Out By the Way" Genesis 45:24
Postlude—Sortie solennelle Niedermeyer

On Sunday our Orphan Home in Addison will have its annual festival, with services at 11 and 3 o'clock. Those who cannot attend may bring their orphan offerings to church.

The children's Christian education classes, including the confirmation class, begin next Wednesday at 4 p. m., meeting again on Saturday at 9:30 p. m. Children of the third, fourth and fifth grades will be taught by Mrs. John McLean, the pastor instructing those of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

An adult catechumen class, for those desiring to be instructed for church membership, will be organized in the pastor's study on Monday, September 20. If interested, please ask the pastor for details.

The monthly Sunday evening service will be held on September 19 at 8 o'clock. Holy Communion will be celebrated in this service, the preparatory service beginning at 7:45. Announcements will be received after next Sunday's service.

At the beginning of another season of activity in the church, our message is: "Always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord."

St. Augustine

(Episcopal)

Dr. Hubert Carleton, rector.

Sunday, September 12, will be the fifteenth Sunday after Trinity. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m., and Morning Prayer and sermon at 11 a. m.

Our Church school will open Sunday, September 19, at 9:45 o'clock.

The Boy choir will sing for the first time after summer vacation Sunday, September 19. On the same Sunday the Girl choir will lead the 9:45 a. m. service.

The tenth annual Week-end Conference for all Church school workers in