

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Becomes Bride

Miss Priscilla Guthrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brandon Guthrie, of Winnetka, became the bride of Alfred B. Novak, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Novak of Chicago, Saturday afternoon. The ceremony took place at Christ Church and was followed by a reception at the Guthrie home.

Mrs. Buckridge Wins N. S. Golf Cup for '37

The women's championship golf tournament at North Shore Country club closed recently. Mrs. F. J. Buckridge of Chicago winning the champion cup with an 85. Mrs. C. H. Warner of Evanston, chairman of golf, opened the meeting after the tournament, and announced the following winners:

Class A—Mrs. Buckridge, champion; Mrs. J. A. Sidney of Chicago, runner-up. Class B—Mrs. W. P. Murphy of Wilmette, winner; Mrs. Warner, runner-up. Class C—Mrs. B. B. Langill of Wilmette, winner; Mrs. Harry Snyder of Wilmette, runner-up. Class D—Mrs. W. A. Taylor of Wilmette, winner; Mrs. Frank Kuttan of Wilmette, runner-up.

Women's golf prizes for the week's events, announced by Mrs. W. H. Molter of Evanston, were as follows:

Class A—Mrs. H. P. Saunders of Chicago, low gross; Mrs. J. P. Dawson of Chicago, low net. Class B—Mrs. I. C. Faber of Evanston, low gross; Mrs. L. W. Moore of Evanston, low net. Class C—Mrs. N. Jerry Jeran of Chicago, low gross; Mrs. Norman E. Bengston of Highland Park, low net. Class D—Miss Ethel Steingraber of Wilmette, low gross; Miss Jane Salisbury of Evanston, low net.

Mrs. Daniel Upp of Chicago won the prize for low putts, Mrs. A. E. Tregenza of Glenview the prize for low score on the short holes, and Mrs. J. M. Brooks of Winnetka the mystery prize.

Hold Sewing Meeting

The September sewing meeting of the Woman's society of the English Lutheran church will be held Thursday afternoon, September 16, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Scott S. Smith, 525 Lake avenue.

Marjorie Thorsen Bride of Arian L. Delander

An informal wedding dress of du-bonnet velvet was worn by Miss Marjorie Thorsen of Kenilworth for her marriage last Friday evening to Arian L. Delander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Delander of Wilmette. She carried a bouquet of white roses, gardenias, and lilies of the valley, and wore a few white roses and button chrysanthemums in her hair.

The ceremony was performed at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. George Allison of the Wilmette Baptist church at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alfred Thorsen of 534 Melrose avenue, and was followed by a reception.

Tall vases of white hydrangeas, white asters, and gladioli formed a background for the ceremony. Mrs. Wallace Meuhlberg of Evanston (Elizabeth Thorsen) serving as her sister's matron of honor and only attendant. Her dress was of French blue velvet, and she carried yellow roses. Herbert Koppel of Wilmette was the best man.

Mr. Delander and his bride are motoring to the Smoky mountains on their wedding trip, and when they return will live in Wilmette.

Roy T. Sellery Will Be Married Sept. 20

Monday, September 20, in the Grace church in Cincinnati, Ohio, Miss Dorothy Heathcote Hills will become the bride of Roy Thomas Sellery, son of Roy Allister Sellery of 908 Ashland avenue. The ceremony will be performed at 8:30 o'clock by the bride's father, the Rev. George Heathcote Hills, pastor of the church. The brother of the bride will give his sister in marriage. After the ceremony a reception will be held at the Maketewah Country club.

Miss Florence Sellery, sister of the bridegroom, and William Sellery are going to Cincinnati several days before the wedding to take part in some of the entertaining for the bridal party. Miss Sellery is to be a bridesmaid, and William is serving his brother as best man.

Roy A. Sellery will leave the weekend of the wedding for Cincinnati, and other north shore people who will be going down for the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sellery of Ravinia, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarke J. Munn of Glencoe.

Entertain Board

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bratton entertained the members of the board of the Town club at a buffet supper, Wednesday, September 8, at their home at 586 South avenue, Glencoe. Mr. Bratton is president for the current year. The Town club, whose members live in Evanston and the suburbs north, meets the first Saturday in each month for dancing.

Juniors Open Meetings

The Junior guild of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church will hold its first meeting of the year Monday evening, September 13, at the church. The program for the meeting is to be announced at a later date.

Give Tea for Mount Holyoke Undergraduates

A tea for undergraduates, sponsored by the north sectional group of the Chicago Mount Holyoke club, will be held Friday afternoon of this week from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Spaulding, 241 Harbor street, Glencoe.

Pouring at the tea will be three Mount Holyoke graduates of the class of 1937, Miss Jane Horton of Evanston, formerly of Glencoe, Miss Betty Best of Glencoe, and Miss Phoebe Baroody of Berwyn. Mrs. James J. Forstall of Winnetka, newly elected alumnae trustee, will also pour at the tea table.

Among the undergraduates who will be guests of honor are Blanche Hatfield of Evanston, Annamarie Booz and Jean Fisher of Wilmette, and Dorothy Warkentien of Park Ridge. Barbara McCluer White of Evanston, an entering freshman, is another guest. Miss White is a scholarship student, having won the competitive scholarship for the highest grades in entrance examinations of any freshman enrolling at Holyoke this fall.

Mrs. Harms Is Hostess to Infant Welfare

Mrs. Marvin Harms, 925 Pawnee road, entertained the board members of the Wilmette Infant Welfare at luncheon Wednesday afternoon. Luncheon was followed by the first board meeting of the year.

Mrs. Harms is the chairman of the board, Mrs. Wallace Behnke, vice-president; Mrs. J. G. Badger, recording secretary; Mrs. Harold S. Condit, corresponding secretary; Mrs. S. D. Flinn, treasurer; Mrs. Wallace Behnke, publicity; Mrs. H. E. Pine, station schedule; Mrs. J. W. Beuttas, clerical schedule; Mrs. J. P. Hoesli, sewing chairman; Mrs. F. J. Crowell, membership chairman; Mrs. Roy E. Best, social chairman; Mrs. H. W. Lindsey, merit system; Mrs. S. C. Warden, legislative; and Mrs. Harry Kerr, ways and means.

All of the board members are residents of Wilmette with the exception of Mrs. Hoesli, who is of Winnetka.

Program and Sewing Open Guild Meetings

With Mrs. Arthur Lee Fuller presiding, the Woman's guild of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church held its opening meeting in the church parlors Thursday, September 2. The next general meeting will be October 7.

After a sewing hour and an executive meeting at which specific plans for the October rummage sale and the November bazaar were outlined, the members enjoyed a hot-weather luncheon served by the First division of which Mrs. E. B. Snyder is chairman.

The afternoon session was given over to music by Mrs. Wallace Mitchell and daughter, Lois, inspirational devotions by Mrs. Martin Bickham, and a splendid talk by Dr. Horace Greeley Smith, former pastor and now head of Garrett Biblical institute.

Is Engaged

Carlos Photo

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Bette Kann, daughter of Jack Kann of Manistee, Mich., to Arnold L. Sobel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Desider Sobel of 412 Laurel avenue, Wilmette. Miss Kann will be a guest on the north shore next week.

Sobels to Hold Open House for Son's Fiancée

Mr. and Mrs. Desider Sobel, 412 Laurel avenue, will have as their guest next week Miss Bette Kann, whose engagement to their son, Arnold L. Sobel, has been announced. Miss Kann, daughter of Jack Kann of Manistee, Mich., will arrive on Monday for a visit of about ten days. On Saturday evening, September 18, Mr. and Mrs. Sobel will hold open house for their son and his fiancée.

Three Spokes in Charge of Society Meeting

The Woman's society of the First Presbyterian church will hold its first meeting of the season Tuesday, September 14. Sewing at 10 o'clock will be in charge of Spokes I and V, and luncheon will be served by Spoke VIII.

Mrs. Kenneth McAfee is to present a book review on the Moslem World. Mrs. Walter Wagner will have charge of the devotional service, and Mrs. William Sherrill will be the soloist for the afternoon.

The meeting and program will be open to all women of the church and their friends.

Entertain Freshmen

The Kenyon Alumni association of Chicago is giving a luncheon at the University club, Saturday, September 11, for the Kenyon college incoming freshmen and their fathers. Robert Bowen Brown of Winnetka is president of the Chicago association.