PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERSElementary Supervisor

The board of education of the Wilmette schools has announced the election of Mrs. Mildred Miles Roberts as elementary supervisor for the Wilmette school district. Mrs. Roberts comes to Wilmette from Beloit, Wis., where she has been engaged in similar work. Previous to that, she was elementary supervisor in Mansfield, Ohio.

Mrs. Roberts' training was at the University of Chicago, Western Illinois State Teachers college, and New York university where she received her Master's degree. Her classroom teaching experience includes first and second grade work at Ludington, Mich.; the Roycemore school at Evanston; primary critic teaching at Illinois States Teachers college, at Macomb; first grade demonstration teacher at Chicago Teachers' college; intermediate grade teacher at Highland Park, and demonstration teacher at New York university summer school.

Mrs. Roberts has had three years' teaching experience abroad as advisor to the elementary department at the Collegio Internazionale Monte Mario in Rome. She is the author of textbooks for the elementary school and of numerous articles that have appeared in leading professional and children's magazines during recent years. The Wilmette schools have had no supervisor for several years. Miss Nellie Moore filled the position up to 1932 when, on account of the depression and the demoralization of school finances by reason of the tax reassessment, the Board was obliged to abolish the position in the interests of economy.

Mrs. Roberts will work under the direction of Superintendent J. R. Harper with the teachers on instructional problems, will give major attention to curriculum matters, direct special studies on various phases of teaching,

Judge Jarecki Overrules '36 Tax Objections

County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki overruled Monday of this week the last general objections filed by large taxpayers against the 1936 tax levy for poor relief purposes in New Trier and other townships. Edmund W. Burke of Wilmette, attorney for New Trier township, appeared before Judge Jarecki many times to argue the case.

The objectors asserted in their petition that New Trier levied a poor relief tax in the amount of $73,500 for the year 1936, and that a tax rate of 15 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation was extended against the objectors' properties. The objection was on the ground that the tax rate and the taxes produced thereby were illegal because the enabling legislation is contrary to the state constitution.

Another objection was based upon the organization of the town meeting.

Third Objection

The third objection contended that the tax levy ordinance under which New Trier township levied the foregoing tax for poor relief, authorized a levy of not to exceed 15 cents on each $100 of assessed valuation for each full calendar year, that the said tax levy was not made effective by ordinance until the latter part of the year 1936, and because of that fact, for the balance of the year 1936 New Trier township could levy taxes for poor relief at a rate equal to 30 cents (as allowed by state law) on each $100 of assessed valuation multiplied by the fraction of the year remaining after the adoption of the 1936 tax levy ordinance for that purpose. On these grounds the objectors contended that the 1936 levy for poor relief was excessive, illegal and void.

As stated, the county judge overruled all of the objections.
