Pioneer Caravan Nears

Members of the pioneer caravan with their Conestoga wagon and yoke of oxen approaching Danville, recently, for their first of 43 appearances in Illinois cities. The old wagon and "modern pioneers" move through sweet scented fields of clover (the oxen loved it) as their forefathers did 150 years ago. They are the Northwest Territory sesquicentennial group which presents the pageant "Freedom on the March," each evening. They will appear at Dyche stadium, Evanston, Friday evening, July 1, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Evanston Historical society. Photo by Seavey and Chapleau
