

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

To Spend Summer in Winnetka After End of Wedding Trip

Returning next week from their honeymoon, a motor trip north, DeWitt Gibson, Jr., and his bride, the former Ruth Coale of Winnetka, will be at home in an apartment in Winnetka, for the summer.

Their wedding took place Saturday afternoon, in the Church of the Holy Comforter, with the Rev. Leland Danforth officiating, and was followed by a reception given at the Kenilworth home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. George Coale.

A white satin wedding gown, with a lace jacket and a long train of the lace, was worn by the bride. Her tulle veil, of fingertip length, was held to her head with a cluster of orange blossoms. White roses, white sweet peas, and lilies of the valley were her flowers.

Miss Caroline Pope of Evanston, the bride's only attendant, was in hyacinth blue chiffon, with a pale yellow hat and a shower bouquet of yellow daisies. Cornflower blue crepe and lace fashioned the dress of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Coale. She wore white accessories, and had a corsage of gardenias and cornflowers.

Ralph Acklin of Evanston was the best man, and William Coale, Jr., was one of the ushers, the other three being Phi Delta Theta fraternity brothers of the bridegroom at Northwestern university, Clarence Barker of Evanston, Jack McNicholas of Marinesco, Mich., and Charles Dugan of Des Moines. Other classmates of the bridegroom, who was graduated a year ago, came from out of town for the wedding, as did some of the classmates of the bride, whose graduation preceded her marriage by just a week. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Culver of Kenosha, uncle and aunt of the bride, were also among the out-of-town guests.

White gladioli, stock, and palms were on the altar and the chancel rail of the church, during the ceremony, and garden flowers were used throughout. Mrs. George Coale's house for the reception, at which 150 were entertained.

The bridal dinner was given the evening before the wedding by the bride's parents at their home, 607 Orchard lane.

Sans Souci Party

Of interest to members of Knollwood club in Lake Forest, many of whom live in this vicinity, is the announcement of its Sans Souci party this Saturday night, with music and dancing at the pool until 9 o'clock, midnight supper at the clubhouse, and then dancing on the open terrace until 2. The midway will have numerous popular attractions. Last year these special parties always drew a very large crowd and were always successful.

Will Return to Winnetka Next Week

DuBois—The Drake
Wearing a lace jacket over her white satin wedding gown, carrying a bouquet of white roses, white sweet peas, and lilies of the valley, and completing her bridal costume with a fingertip length tulle veil caught with a cluster of orange blossoms, Miss Ruth Coale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Coale of Winnetka, was married Saturday afternoon to DeWitt Gibson, Jr., son of DeWitt Gibson of Perry, Iowa. The young couple will be at home in Winnetka next week.

National College Alumnae Meet Today

The North Shore alumnae of the National College of Education meet Thursday evening, June 23, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Miss Mabel Kearns, 118 Keeney street, Evanston. The hostess, past president of the alumnae, is on the faculty of National college. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss plans for fall.

The new board has been appointed for next year:

Mrs. G. D. Theisen of 203 Elmwood avenue Evanston, president; Mrs. C. Arthur Carlson, of Evanston, first vice-president; Mrs. C. R. Bishop, Evanston, second vice-president; Mrs. Victor W. Bridle of Highland Park, third vice-president; Mrs. J. H. Faller of Glencoe, recording secretary; Miss Lola Kurz of Wilmette, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Louis Holt Schmidt of Evanston, treasurer; Mrs. James Wigginton of Evanston, publicity; Mrs. Howard D. Carver of Evanston, membership; Mrs. E. L. Nygaard of Wilmette, member-at-large.

National Officer at Delta Gamma Convention

Mrs. Harry S. Gradle of Highland Park will be a representative at the twenty-ninth biennial convention of Delta Gamma sorority which takes place June 21-25 at the Broadmoor hotel at Colorado Springs, Colo. Mrs. Gradle is national secretary of the organization.

There will be talks by prominent women of America, among whom is Ruth Bryan Rohde. One of the chief discussions of the group will concern the project for next year which has not yet been decided upon.

Other representatives from the North Shore will be Mrs. Edward C. Hildreth of Wilmette and Miss Ruth Gates of Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville H. Warwick entertained thirty guests at a dinner party at their home, 322 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, last Saturday evening.

Gamma Phi Beta Convention Draws North Shore Members

The fortieth annual convention of Gamma Phi Beta will meet in Del Monte, Calif., on June 24. Mrs. Stuart K. Fox, 730 Forest avenue, Wilmette, director of Province II, left Saturday to attend a pre-convention meeting of province directors. The active chapter at Northwestern will send Miss Virginia Anderson and Miss Larrie Cornell as delegates.

In addition to being president of Epsilon chapter of Gamma Phi Beta for the coming year, Virginia Anderson has been very active on the campus. In the annual May Day festivities, she was elected May Queen, a selection which is based not only on beauty, but also on scholastic and campus activity. Miss Anderson is a member of Mortar Board; she was a member of the Junior Class council; she was a Syllabus Queen; on the Charity ball committee, Homecoming decoration committee, a member of the cast of the Waa-Mu show, and in her freshman year she was president of Willard hall. Especially attractive, Miss Anderson's picture was used on the cover of one of the issues of the Purple Parrot and she was chosen to model in one of the fashion shows at one of the large loop stores.

Larrie Cornell, who is the other representative of the active chapter, is a member of the Y.W.C.A. Cabinet, is Gamma Phi Beta's representative in Shi-ai, and she is a member of Alethenai, Northwestern's honorary literary society.

Mrs. Hubert L. Hardy of Evanston, will go to the convention as the representative of the Chicago Alumnae chapter, and Miss Dorothy Somers will be the delegate for the House association.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford university, will open the convention with an address. Los Angeles and San Francisco Alumnae chapters are planning entertainment for the delegates before and after convention. There will be a post-convention trip into Mexico which will include many interesting and historic places. The hostesses of the convention have also planned short trips to Yosemite, Lake Tahoe, Santa Barbara, and Palm Springs.

Lido Party at Shawnee

Saturday, July 16, has been chosen as the date for the annual Lido party at Shawnee Country club this season. This mid-summer affair is one of the big social activities of Shawnee's yearly calendar, and the entertainment committee is making plans to entertain a large number of guests. The order of the evening will be swimming, dancing, and dining. Eddy Allen's orchestra has been engaged for the dancing, but the arrangements have not yet been completed.