

Florence M. Kriesant Married to Glenview Man on September 3

Saturday evening, September 3, at 7 o'clock in Our Lady of Perpetual Help church in Glenview, Miss Florence M. Kriesant, daughter of Mrs. Frank Thalmann, 1050 Illinois road, Wilmette, became the bride of William E. Carper of Glenview.

The bride wore a wedding dress of ivory slipper satin made on princess lines with full train and long puffed sleeves. A headdress of orange blossoms held in place the long ivory tulle veil. Gladioli, lilies of the valley, and roses composed the bridal bouquet.

The maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Stockbridge of Chicago, wore a two-toned chrysanthemum chiffon dress and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums, while the bridesmaid, Miss Josephine Braun, cousin of the bride, was dressed in chiffon of two tones of copper, complemented by a bouquet of copper chrysanthemums.

Was Best Man

Glen Hutchison served as best man, while a cousin of the bridegroom, LeRoy Harrer, was the usher. Mrs. Thalmann, the bride's mother, was dressed in green crepe, a green hat, and corsage of flesh gladioli.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper and reception were held at the home of the bride where about 150 relatives and friends were entertained. Mr. Carper and his bride are spending their honeymoon touring around Lake Michigan.
