North Shore School Sends Many Students to Eastern Colleges

From the class of 1938 which completed its work at the North Shore Country Day school last June, there is a large group going to eastern colleges this year. Harvard is to receive the largest single delegation from the class which consists of five students among them several honor students. The Williams delegation will be four and there are two going each to Yale and Massachusetts tech.

Among the girls two are going to Vassar, two to Wellesley, two to Bradford Junior College, and one each to Smith, Wisconsin, Mount Holyoke, Pine Manor, Stuart Junior College, and to Stephens College.

"The school is tremendously proud of the fact that it has for the fourth time won a Harvard College National Scholarship," stated Headmaster Perry Dunlap Smith.

Peter Dammann, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dammann, Jr., 853 Prospect avenue, Winnetka, having received the award this year. No other school has had more than two such awards. The other boys who are going to Harvard are: Dirck Westervelt, son of General and Mrs. William I. Westervelt, 465 Poplar street, Winnetka; Lawrence Howe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Howe, 175 Chestnut street, Winnetka; John Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Fisher, 949 Fisher lane, Winnetka; Richard Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle F. Johnson, 600 Ridge road, Winnetka; Robert Mack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Mack, 296 Hazel avenue, Highland Park.

The Williams group consists of Gilbert Bills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Bills, 2440 Orrington avenue, Evanston; Thomas Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Kenneth Boyd, 250 White Oak lane, Winnetka; Macgill Lynde, son of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Lynde, 302 Forest street, Winnetka, and Richard Stout, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Herrick Hammond, 684 Pine street, Winnetka.

General Westervelt's other son, Peter is going to Massachusetts Tech, together with James Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Schwarz, 215 Orchard lane, Highland Park.

The Yale delegation consists of Frederic O. Mason, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic O. Mason, 857 Ash street, Winnetka, and H. Shepardson Marsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fletcher Marsh, 645 Hill road, Winnetka, the latter having received honors on his examination in English.

Among the girls colleges, Josephine Wallace, daughter of Mr. Walter F. Wallace, 815 Mt. Pleasant road, Winnetka, was admitted with honors at the end of her junior year to Vassar. She was, therefore, released from much college entrance work. She will room with Anita Straub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Straub, 1250 Westmoor road, who has also maintained a high stand academically.

For Wellesley there are, Priscilla Blackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hill Blackett, 614 Pine lane, Winnetka, and Christina Freeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Freeman, 185 Chestnut street, Winnetka.

Sally Bull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Bull, 43 Locust road, is going to Smith.

Anne Daughaday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Daughaday, 945 Elm street, who received honors on her English examination is going to Mount Holyoke.

To Pine Manor

Beatrice Keator, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark L. Keator, 785 Willow road, is going to Pine Manor.

Mary Law, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marc A. Law, 27 North Linden avenue, Highland Park, to the University of Wisconsin.

Barbara Burnham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Burnham, 519 Cedar street, Winnetka and Zada Craft, daughter of Daniel D. Craft, 195 Ridge avenue, Winnetka, are going to Bradford Junior college. Jean Wolcott, daughter of Mrs. Ryland A. Wolcott, 932 Euclid avenue, Hubbard Woods, is going to Stuart Junior College in Boston.

Barbara Baggaley, daughter of Mrs. L. J. Baggaley, 19 Warwick road, Indian Hill, is going to Stephens college in Missouri where she will be the first graduate of North Shore Country Day School to matriculate.

LIBRARY

New Books Seen as Aids in Liberal Education

By Ann L. Whitmack

A well-known definition of an educated man is "one who suspends judgment until all the evidence is in." While this may be the counsel of perfection, nevertheless in this day of complex international relationships it is well to remember it and be guided accordingly.

The Wilmette Public library believes that it is part of its function to help people form valid judgments of the problems before them, and has arranged a special display of the books on the following list. Any title may be borrowed.

Borghese—Goliath: the March of Fascism.

Baldwin—Caissons Roll.

Haldane—Heredity and Politics.

Ashton—The Fascist.

Borchard—Neutrality for the United States.

Wilson—Education of a Diplomat.

Emden—Money Powers of Europe.

Martelli—Italy Against the World.

Hanson—Journey to Manaos.

Paul—Life and Death in a Spanish Town.

Werth—Whither France?

Central Europe

Fodor—Plot and Counterplot.
