

a London girl who the year before had won the girl's championship. Miss Collett was figured to beat Miss Fishwick but the unexpected happened and Diana won.

14 Year Old Entry

Miss Jeanne Clien of Bloomington, 14 years old, is the youngest player to ever start in the national championship. She is the young lady whose parents have voted her a career in golf and higher education, as she is not only a precocious child on the course but an excellent scholar who brings her report card home with A's and with a B plus the lowest rating on it. An A in a school subject, says Jeanne, pleases her as much as a birdie on the links.

Miss Jean Kyer, of Ann Arbor, brilliant young scientist of the University of Michigan faculty, is playing for the fourth time in the National. She has never failed to qualify and last year at Memphis was eliminated in the first round by Miss Jane Cothran at the 19th hole, where Miss Cothran holed a long putt for a birdie three at the 19th. Miss Kyer has little opportunity to develop her fine golf game. Work at Michigan keeps her busy in the Chemistry lab and she only plays golf about three months in the summer.

Five Beautiful Blondes

There will be at least five very beautiful, natural blondes at Westmoreland. These will be Miss Virginia Guilfoil of Syracuse university, a young lady athlete who has been awarded the Varsity "S", Miss Helen Dettweiler of Washington, Miss Shirely Ann Johnson of Chicago, Miss Jean Bauer, Rhode Island and Miss Phyllis Buchanan of Denver. And, they all play in the front ranks.

Of great interest to Chicago golf galleries will be the first appearance here of Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page, who registers from Chapel Hill, N. C., and is the defending champion. Chicago golfland knows that Mrs. Page started golf five years ago with four clubs and under instruction from her father, Dr. Robert Lawson, won the national title at Memphis last year. Her final scores in practice before leaving for the Curtis cup and the national were 72-75-71 over a tough course in Durham, N. C.

Mrs. Page scored the most convincing victory of any of the United States team in the Curtis Cup matches when she defeated Mrs. Andrew M. Holm, the British women's champion, 6 and 5 in the International competition at Manchester, Mass. These ladies played in the number one spot for their sides.

VISIT RELATIVES

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNeil Burns, Jr., have been at Mrs. Burns' father's summer home at Portage Lake, Mich. From there they went to Port Huron to visit Mr. Burns' grandfather, Marshal Ney Petit, and spend his eighty-ninth birthday with him on September 8. He planned to give a dinner party in their honor. From there they expected to go to Hudson, Ohio to spend some time at Mrs. Burns' former home before returning to the North Shore.

SPEND SUMMER ON RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sherritt, 714 Ashland avenue, and their two daughters, Arlee Rue and Evaro Jean, who spent the summer in the mountains and on a ranch in the West, returned home Monday. They motored to Canada, Washington, and Yellowstone National park. On the return trip, they motored as far as Billings, N. D., taking the train home from there and shipping the car.
