

Their Mother Directs Methodist Bazaar

Clifford A. Ives, and his sisters, Virginia May, in the center, and Caryl Faye, are the son and daughters of Mrs. Clifford E. Ives who is general chairman of the large two-day bazaar the Woman's guild of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church is staging November 17 and 18. Funny stuffed animals, upside-down dolls, calico kangaroos, pigs, kittens, dogs, and even gingerbread dolls, are among the clever hand-made toys to be displayed during the bazaar. These toys, as well as a Pet show, and a Hobby show are bazaar attractions which will appeal to North Shore boys and girls as well as to their elders. Photo by William Lehle

Club Finds Mexico Through Camera Eye

In his illustrated talk on "Mexican Gardens in Color" Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry W. Drucker, 1125 Mohawk road, Wilmette, Orval Simpson of Winnetka showed beautiful motion pictures in color, of life in Mexico—festivals, processions, dances, bull fights, flower stalls, floating gardens, and waterfalls. The occasion was the meeting of the Wilmette Garden club.

Seeing the pictures and hearing Mr. Simpson's interesting comments on them, gave one the feeling that one actually was in Mexico, seeing the scenes that he had seen on his trip. Mrs. E. L. Scheidenhelm, the club's program chairman, introduced Mrs. Charles W. Moody, who introduced Mr. Simpson.

Mrs. James C. Leaton, chairman for the club for the Chicago Plant, Flower, and Fruit guild, asked the members and others in Wilmette who care to, to bring gifts of useful articles that may include linens, clothing, money, jellies, to her to pack and take on December 16, to the hospitals, Visiting Nurse association and settlement houses to which the guild sends flowers in the summer.

Mrs. T. E. McElroy, president of the Garden club, and Mrs. E. H. Burge, the recording secretary, poured at the tea that followed the program.

The assistant hostesses were Mrs. John Hardy Weedon and Mrs. Franklin B. Schmick.—F. B. M.
