HALLOWEEN PRANK

Editor, WILMETTE LIFE:

Will the boys or girls who on Halloween pulled out the house numbers along the parkways please restore same and oblige the Kenilworth citizens?

Good, clean fun is enjoyable. Vandalism is unAmerican and does not belong to our American youth.

Discuss Co-operatives, Unemployment Tonight

"The Co-operative and Unemployment" will be the subject of a panel discussion to be held at Harris hall, Northwestern university campus, this evening (Thursday) at 8 o'clock. The meeting is to be held under the sponsorship of the North Shore Co-operative society.

HOME FROM TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Myers, 711 Linden avenue, returned home Tuesday from a trip to St. Louis, where Mr. Myers was called on business. Mr. and Mrs. Myers and their son, Sheldon, 12 years old, moved to Wilmette in September from Mansfield, Ohio.

T. J. Moreau of 1507 Walnut avenue, whose son, Charles, is a senior at the University of Illinois, will spend a week-end in Urbana, attending the Father's Day festivities to be held at the university.

Mrs. L. W. Shanesy, dancing chairman, announces that the dancing classes will be held at the usual time and place on Friday, November 11. Mrs. Theron Woolson, instructor, asks the 5 o'clock class to report at the auditorium not earlier than 4:55 p.m., to avoid confusion in dismissing the other class.

The room conferences sponsored by the P. T. A. this month have been very successful, every room having one hundred per cent attendance up to this date. Conferences have been in the rooms of Miss Clegg, Mrs. Burtner, Mrs. Julian, Miss Green, Miss Brown, Miss Flaskered, Mr. Savage, Miss Carmody, Miss Hardick, Miss Yarnell, and Mrs. Trena Turner.

At Mrs. Turner's room conference, the children took charge of the program, ushered their mothers and introduced them. They spoke to the mothers of the many interesting places in our village they had visited.

One little lady gave a sketch of the invention of the steam boat by Robert Fulton, as it would have been broadcast today over radio.

Miss Helen Hardick spoke of the Demonstration school of Northwestern university.

Plans were made for conferences for this room for the balance of the year.

Mrs. Mildred Roberts, supervisor of schools, spoke of character building at Miss Yarnell's conference.

J. R. Harper was the speaker at the conference of Miss Flaskered's room.

Miss Reeva Jane Golden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Golden, 340 Central avenue, a senior at the University of Wisconsin, came home last week-end for the Northwestern-Wisconsin football game and brought with her as her house guests three of her sorority sisters.

Mrs. Charles A. Clark, 845 Sheridan road, arrived home Sunday from Ogden, Utah, after spending seven weeks there with an aunt whose husband died recently.

Public Invited to Visit Three Hemphill Houses

C. A. Hemphill and Associates announce the opening for public inspection this week of three houses which they have just completed in Tower Manor, Hubbard Woods.

Tower Manor is a residential development put on the market recently by C. A. Hemphill and Associates comprising light building sites at the northeast corner of Tower and East Green Bay roads. The property was formerly owned by the estate of the late G. A. E. Kohler and had been unimproved for many years.

A total of five houses have been built this year of which the first two were sold before completion. In addition to the three now to be exhibited, three additional houses are to be started at an early date.

Latest Developments

In commenting upon the houses his firm is now placing on exhibit, Mr. Hemphill stated, "We know that people who are considering buying or building homes are always interested in seeing the latest and most practical developments in home building. Furthermore they are, of course, interested in seeing various designs and styles of homes. But perhaps the thing that most people are interested in is in being able to see a new house completely decorated and furnished.

For this reason John M. Smyth and company has joined with us in furnishing one of the three houses. Thus there is afforded the opportunity for one to acquaint himself with not only the latest features of modern, good residence construction, but also with the newest effects in decoration, color schemes, draperies, and interior appointments as well as the correct modes in furniture and furnishings.

Of Different Designs

The three houses being exhibited are all of different designs, one being Modern Regency, one Early American, and one French design. Two of the houses are each of eight rooms and three baths, with breakfast room and finished recreation room. The third house is located on Private road just east of East Green Bay road and has nine rooms, three and one-half baths, breakfast room and butler's pantry, and finished recreation room.

All the houses have been attractively landscaped by C. D. Wagstaff and company in a manner suited to the particular design and individuality of each house and yet preserving the harmony of the whole setting.

The houses will be on exhibit from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. week days, and from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday.

MOVE NORTH

The Radio Cab company moved to new headquarters at 2520 Green Bay road, Evanston, Monday. One reason for the move, according to Howard Dabbs, president, is to make it possible for the company to serve better its North Shore patrons. For this same reason additional phones have been installed at the Noyes, Central and Isabella street "L" stations and at the Lincolnwood-Central and East Railroad-Central street intersections. There is also an additional phone at the Dempster street "L" and other phones are located at Howard and Asbury and at the Davis, Main and Howard street "L" stations. The company's headquarters formerly were located at 620 Madison street, Evanston.
