

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

To Decorate Club Friday for Ever- green Ball Dec. 17

Members of the Newberry Center league are going to Shawnee Country club, Friday night, to assist with the decorations for the Evergreen ball which the organization will hold at the club the following evening, December 17. Many Christmas trees will be used as a background in keeping with the holiday atmosphere of the party. Charlie Gaylord and his orchestra will play for the dancing.

Mrs. John Jones Sharon of Glenview, chairman of the affair, and the members of her committee are happy to announce they have sold so many tickets that it has been necessary to order a reprinting.

Among those entertaining before the dance are Mrs. Harold O. Barnes who is giving a dinner party at her home, and Mrs. Charles Howell, entertaining at dinner at her home in Winnetka. Mrs. Sharon and Mrs. G. Bruce Wallace will be hostesses at dinner parties at Shawnee club.

At a meeting of the league held last Friday, Mrs. Gene Heywood was elected president to succeed Mrs. Barnes. Other new officers are Mrs. Leonard Wilson of Evanston, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Howell of Winnetka, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George Currier of Evanston, recording secretary, and Mrs. Wallace, treasurer.

During the meeting, under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tiers of Wilmette, the members stitched and filled seventy-five tarlatan stockings for the children at the center.

Cradle Auxiliary Has New Cook Book on Sale

At holiday time and as a suggestion for Christmas giving the Winnetka Junior auxiliary of the Cradle has placed on sale a new cookbook, "Some Like It Hot, Some Like It Cold."

The book contains more than sixty recipes for hot dishes and appropriate salads, as well as recipes for desserts, sauces, and hot breads.

The book, off the press last Saturday, may be obtained by calling Mrs. Addison Walker of 96 Church road, Winnetka, from any member of the Cradle auxiliary, and from the following places: The Cradle Tea Room, Evanston; Marshall Field & Co., Evanston and Chicago; The Gift Corner, Highland Park; Cornelia Safford's Gift Shop, Glencoe; Robin's Book Shop, Geneva, Ill.; Grace Herbst Gift Shop, Winnetka; Chestnut Book Shop, Winnetka.

Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bonnet, 157 Robsart place, Kenilworth, are entertaining at a family dinner party for eighteen on Christmas day.

Party Will Make Their Christmas Happier

In the library of the Chicago Junior school on the Fox river near Elgin, is pictured this group of boys, members of the Student council. They, and their other companions, will find their Christmas brighter because of the party members of the North Shore Friends of the school will have Monday of this coming week. Mrs. Porter Fox, 626 Warwick road, Kenilworth, is opening her home for the event, a luncheon at 1 o'clock, followed by sewing, and by the entertainment and the singing of carols by the boys themselves. By Courtesy of Chicago Junior School

Erika Mann Will Speak at Chanukah Breakfast

The annual Chanukah breakfast to be given under the auspices of the Woman's division of the American Jewish Congress, which will take place at the Sherman hotel at 10:30 Monday morning, December 19, will feature Erika Mann, well known author of the recent book, "School for Barbarians," which depicts the conditions of the youth under the Hitler regime.

Together with her father, Thomas Mann, the noted author, she was exiled from Germany because of her opposition to dictator philosophy.

After a lecture tour of America, Miss Mann went to Spain, from which point she contributed articles to many American publications, regarding Spain's struggle for democracy.

More than one thousand women are expected to hear this gifted speaker. Proceeds will further the work of the American Jewish Congress, whose demands are unusually heavy at this tragic time.

The North Shore Woman's committee is particularly active in furthering this meeting. Mrs. Milton J. Krensky of Glencoe is chairman.

At Home Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Owen of 306 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, are having open house Sunday from 4 to 7 o'clock. Mrs. Owen is the former Marcelle Vennema of Winnetka.

Christmas Party Is Event for Junior School

Members of the North Shore Friends of the Chicago Junior School will attend a Christmas party to be given at the home of Mrs. Porter Fox, 626 Warwick road, Kenilworth, Monday, December 19. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

A group of the boys from the school will entertain and sing Christmas carols.

Friends and members are invited to bring gifts to brighten Christmas for the boys, and in the afternoon sewing will be done for the school.

Mrs. Harry Hardwick, chairman of the social committee, will be assisted by the following hostesses, Mrs. Alfred Brown, Mrs. Leo R. Campbell, Mrs. Clifford Ellis, Mrs. C. S. Southward, Mrs. John R. Smith, Mrs. E. Staehelin, and Mrs. William Buttner.

Reservations may be made not later than Saturday, December 17, to Mrs. Porter Fox at her home.

Robert Cutler Tours With Triangle Show

Robert Cutler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percival N. Cutler, 207 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, is spending his Christmas holidays traveling with the Princeton Triangle show and will only be home for a day or so when the company is appearing in Chicago on December 27. The show opened at Princeton last Saturday and this Saturday is playing in New York. Other appearances will follow in many parts of the East and Middle West. Robert is playing a piano accordion in the orchestra, and in the show gives a trio skit with two other boys, one playing a marimba and another a guitar.

Mother-Daughter Day Is New Event for Sisterhood

Mothers and daughters of the North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood will get together at luncheon on Wednesday, December 21, at 12:30, for their first day of the kind. The affair comes in response to repeated requests of the young people for a rally in their special honor, and promises to be a lot of fun.

As all schools will be having their holiday recess at that time, a very large and jolly attendance is anticipated. Eligibility is not to be taken too literally and there is no age limit. Everyone from 5 to 75 is welcome, whether she actually has a daughter in town, or merely a niece, granddaughter or cousin. The day is set aside for the young people and their sponsors, and the Sisterhood is expecting a turn-out of all the girls from kindergarten to college.

A suitable program has been arranged, but just what the talent will be is being kept a surprise. However, the program committee that has officiated so capably all season with Mrs. Milton Grauer at the helm, assures a happy time. And there will be souvenirs for all the young women.

Reservations are to be made well in advance with Mrs. William Lederer of 393 Sunset road, Winnetka, or through the temple office. Members are reminded that the recommendations of a special board meeting will be voted on, and their careful deliberation is needed. "Check the date, December 21, on your calendar, and be on hand for the party," the Sisterhood urges.

New Trier Seniors Hostesses for Dance

Invitations have been issued by thirty senior girls at New Trier High school for a dance which they will give Friday evening, December 23, at the Drake hotel in Chicago. The hostesses include Betty Baker, Elizabeth Bonnet, Betty Bruce, Barbara Burch, Jane Drucker, Barbara Faxon, Joan Felsenthal, Janann Fleming, Muriel Foreman, Joan Gerwe, Dawn Herbuveaux, Joan Hyatt, Barbara Hypes, Doris Keckley, Mary Macalister, Mary Virginia Penick, Margaret Raymond, Jane Records, Janet Rogers, Shirley Scarratt, Frances Schipfer, Gwendolyn Small, Virginia Smith, Nancy Swan, Margaret Walker, Harline Ward, Nancy Ward, Gertrude Weinstock, Betty Wells and Mary Wilder.

Dance for Young Set

The Country Club of Evanston is giving its annual young people's ball, for junior members and their guests, Saturday evening, December 24. The Colonial Club orchestra will play for the dancing.