

N. U. Swim Coach Launches 30th Year

Starting his 30th season with all of the enthusiasm and vigor of a newcomer, Coach Tom Robinson, Northwestern's "grand old man of swimming," has visions of his best team since the championship outfit of 1933.

Robinson outdates every active varsity coach in the Big Ten and has few rivals from the point of actual service at one school in the country. He began his coaching career at Northwestern in 1910 and hasn't missed a season. His teams have won 10 Big Ten championships and six national titles.

Reasons for Coach Robinson's optimism this year are to be found in eight sophomores who along with eight lettermen are expected to provide the Wildcats with a strong team. Leading the sophomore contingent is Irving McCaffrey of Chicago, national 220 yard free style champion in 1937. Other newcomers are Pete Kelly, former Iowa 220 and 440 interscholastic champion; Tom Powell, Southeastern diving champion, and Lynn Surles of Milwaukee, sprint star.

Returning lettermen are Capt. Herb Wolfson, sprinter; Harold Dash, crawl and backstroke; Mel Sutker, breast stroke; Sid Ferguson, crawl; Doyle Gray, backstroke; George Green, diver and Bob Newman, breaststroke.

The schedule follows:

Jan. 14 Purdue at Evanston
Jan. 20 Chicago at Evanston
Feb. 9 Wisconsin at Evanston
Feb. 11 Iowa at Evanston
Feb. 18 Minnesota at Minneapolis
Feb. 25 Illinois at Evanston
Feb. 27 Michigan at Evanston
Mar. 4 Ohio at Evanston
Mar. 10-11 Conference at Purdue
Mar. 24-25 N.C.A.A. at Ann Arbor

REPORT FOR WRESTLING

Two members of Northwestern's football team—Nick Cutlich and Joe Vavrus, tackles—have reported for wrestling. Cutlich, a heavyweight, and Vavrus, a light heavyweight, won letters as sophomores last year. Cutlich will renew a longtime rivalry with Bob Haak of Indiana, also a football player. Both boys hail from Indiana and their wrestling rivalry dates from high school days. Haak defeated Cutlich in the Big Ten meet last spring.
