THE JOY OF LIVING

The thoroughness with which one lives governs the joy that life affords him. Only by thoughtful and thorough preparation for the future can men enjoy all the pleasures of living. The FAMILY PLOT is the most thoughtful purchase he can make to provide him and his loved ones with a sense of security and comfort for the future.

TROOP IV

For the last few meetings our Scout Troup has been listening to a group of nature talks by Mrs. Theron Colton. Her first talk was on stars, the next on birds, the third on wild flowers, and Monday, March 6, she concluded these lectures with a talk on trees.

During this same time the troupe as a whole has completed its work on the home nurse badge. By the last of February the following girls finished their work on the winter sports badge, Lucille Becker, Shirley Cooter, Elizabeth Dilling, Patsy Hemphill, Mona Kinney, Millicent Kleckner, Betty Mitten, Joan Murphy, Marian Petersen, Frances Peterson, and Florence Willett.

At the present time the troupe is working on a minstrel show to be terment was in All Saint's cemetery. Mr. Joyce was a former resident of Wilmette, the family having lived for twenty-one years at 423 Tenth street.

JAMES M. KRAFTHEFER

James M. Krafthefer, 63, of 901 Oakwood avenue, died Tuesday at Leesburg, Fla., where he had been with his wife since February 10. When his illness became serious his son, James, went to Leesburg to be with his parents.

Survivors are the widow, Marguerite; two sons, James and David, both of Wilmette, and six daughters, Paula June of Wilmette; Mrs. Edward B. Casey, Chicago; Mrs. John A. Howard, Chicago; Sister Immaculate of St. Mary's of the Woods, Indiana; Mrs. George May, Chicago; Mrs. Albert Thompson, San Francisco. Mrs. Anna Mueller and Mrs. Herman Bobene of Chicago, are sisters.

The remains are being brought to Wilmette, and funeral services are expected to be held Saturday morning at St. Francis Xavier church. Burial will be in All Saint's cemetery.

Mr. Krafthefer was president of the Pennoyer Merchants Transfer company of Chicago, with which concern he had been associated for thirty years.

given April 28 at our Girl Scouts parents' night. — Lucille Becker, scribe.

Fathers and mothers of Kenilworth Girl Scouts are asked to reserve the date, April 28. On that occasion a Girl Scout jamboree for parents will be held at Joseph Sears school.

TROOP 11

Star study has been the project pursued by Troop II of the Kenilworth Girl Scouts this month.

Inspired by Mrs. Colton's lecture on stars, late in February, we decided to continue our work. On February 17 we embarked on our first star hunting trip. Under the leadership of Mrs. Gilson we joyously discovered the north pole star, the dippers, Cassiopea, Orion, and saw the planet Jupiter. The following Friday evening we visited Dearborn observatory on Northwestern university campus where we looked through the 18 foot telescope.

Our final trip will be a field trip to the Adler planetarium in Chicago. — Gloria Gridley, scribe.
