Local Garden Clubs Win 17 Ribbons in Flower Show on Pier

Again North Shore Garden clubs share markedly in the honors conferred at the Chicago Flower show current on the Navy Pier in Chicago daily through this coming Sunday night. Seventeen ribbons are "the spoils of victory" won by nine clubs.

The theme of this year's exhibit has been so widely heralded, so widely described, that at this writing its story has all been told. Those yet to see it will have their own reaction to all it offers in interest, in beauty, in the recapturing of the spirit of eras in Illinois that have passed, in its hints at what the future may bring, in all the color of the florists' exhibits that spell flowers and typify the Eastertide. The North Shore has contributed splendidly to all of this.

Wilmette Garden Club

The Wilmette Garden club wins two ribbons. The red ribbon of second prize hangs on its window box of the present day. Gold curtains with rose-gold fringe are at the windows behind which one sees a quaint table and stand with grapes. Green and white foliage plants and vines fill the box.

The yellow ribbon of honorable mention marks its flower arrangement in the period of 1893. On a leopard skin rug lies a red velvet book. On a brass, marble-topped table, are arranged a glass paperweight, white doily and a blue vase decorated with brown leaves which is filled with pink roses. On a lower table elevation near the floor is a white, pink-lined glass bowl holding forget-me-nots.

Kenilworth Home and Garden

The Kenilworth Home and Garden club is given a blue ribbon for its interior window and doorway in the Aldine Square exhibit. A wrought-iron beetle foot scraper is near the door. A pink glass lamp hangs in the doorway. White lace curtains with red cord tie-backs and red silk drapery decorate the window. A red china lamp with gold globe painted with roses is at the window on a quaint table with a rose and blue table cover. A ruby red and white glass cup completes the "gay nineties" touch with its matches. A gold table with glass shelf filled with "nicknacks" is in a second window.

The club also has won a purple ribbon for its "fire-thorn" entered in the potted plant class.

Kenilworth Garden Club

The Kenilworth Garden club's exhibit, pictured elsewhere in this issue, wins a blue ribbon for its entrance garden in the Aldine Square group.

Kenilworth Juniors

The Kenilworth Junior Garden club has the third prize, a white ribbon, for its flower exhibit of the period of 1893. On a walnut stand with brown marble top, a stereoscope and pictures, and a green vase painted with pink roses are placed. Pink roses fill the vase. Under the little table is an oriental rug.

Miss Alison Burge is chairman of the clubhouse arrangements committee for the series of lectures sponsored by the Junior auxiliary of the Woman's Club of Wilmette. The second in the series takes place Monday evening, April 17, with William E. Diez, writer, teacher, lecturer, speaking on "Which Way American Neutrality?"

for its entrance garden in the Aldine Square exhibit. Myrtle and ivy edged, color is provided by bleeding hearts, spiraea, and white roses. An old sun dial is in the garden and urns at each side of the steps are filled with yellow primulae, red coleus leaves, pandanus, and vinca vines.

A red ribbon is awarded the club for its aralia in the potted plant class.

Winnetka Garden Club

The Winnetka Garden club wins the purple ribbon of special award for its exhibit, the porch and interior in the "feeling of Galena," the home of General Grant selected to represent the Civil war period in Illinois history. Simplicity is the keynote of the exhibit. The Galena garden ensemble won the special award of the Garden Club of America last Saturday.

North Shore

The North Shore Garden club has a blue ribbon for its window box of the present day; a blue ribbon for wall pocket of the present day; a red ribbon for another wall niche arrangement of the present day; and a yellow ribbon for its fuchsia in the potted plant class.

Glencoe Garden Club

The Glencoe Garden club is given a silver medal for its window box of the future—rose-beige curtains in the window complemented by the cork-front box with its unique flowers of copper and cork and wood.

Skokie Garden Club

The Skokie Garden Club of Glencoe, for its entrance garden in the Aldine Square group, wins a purple ribbon of special award.

Evanston Junior League

The Evanston Junior League Garden club has a purple ribbon for its open garden in the Aldine Square group, the whole bridge garden winning a silver medal. The formal patterned planting of the gravel garden surrounds a pool. Radio red geraniums, pink begonias, and ageratum give color to the green of echeveria, iron plant, gracaena. The club also has a purple ribbon for its pyracanthus, the "fire thorn." J. T. B.

Meet to Discuss Plans For Travel Style Show

The group of young women planning the travel style show for the evening of April 28, at Shawnee Country club for the benefit of the St. Francis Xavier church, held a meeting at the home of the Misses Honore, Marguerite, and Kathleen O'Brien, 522 Greenwood avenue, Kenilworth, Monday night. At that time they developed further the plans they are completing for the benefit. Miss Helen Kirtley, chairman of the ticket committee, also has had a meeting of her group which is now ready to start its campaign.

One of the many prizes for the party will be a round trip ticket to the New York World's fair.

Members of the tickets committee are, besides Miss Kirtley, Harriet McCall, co-chairman; Edith McCall, Eileen Leary, Margaret Chandler Schneider, Dorothy Rohol, Annette Kelly Liese, Mary Florence Koenig, Therese Maguire, Betty Kirwan Becker, Clara Meter, Alice O'Connell, Helen Manley, Marian Weber, Avis Norman, Margaret Mencke, Betty McDermott, and Betty Brown-ing.

Home From East

Miss Dorothy Fisher came home Thursday of last week from the Northampton School for Girls, and her sister, Jeane, arrived Monday from Mount Holyoke college, for their spring vacations. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Fisher, Jr., of Winnetka, formerly of Wilmette.

Women Voters Hold Last Study Group Meeting on Monday

The second meeting of the government and legal status study group, sponsored by the Wilmette League of Women Voters, will be held at 9:30 o'clock Monday, April 3, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Weinberg, 115 Linden avenue, chairman of this department of the local league.

The following reports will be presented: "Plan for Woman's Court" by Mrs. H. A. Reise, "Policewomen and Their Work" by Mrs. John Galt, "Adult Probation" by Mrs. A. D. Albee, and "Revised Statutes" by Mrs. Marion L. Miller.

This is the last of a series of study groups held under the direction of the various department heads of the Wilmette league.

Upon the completion of the series, the group will take two field trips, one to the Woman's court of Chicago and another to Dwight reformatory, also a woman's institution.

The league hopes for a large attendance at Monday's meeting, which will afford members an unusual opportunity to learn about court conditions and social conditions generally as they relate to the problems of women. Mrs. Weinberg, an experienced lawyer, is in a position to supply valuable information on the subjects under discussion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Delfosse, 853 Sheridan road, have returned from a week's outing at the French Lick Springs hotel, French Lick, Ind.

Their Thoughts Center Around April Frolic

The Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago is revolving its thoughts around the April Frolic which it will have for its members and their guests on April 29, at Shawnee Country club. The event will be a cocktail party and supper dance with entertainment features. A group of members of the center working in the interests of the frolic are pictured above. From left to right they are: Mrs. Harvey Craig, Mrs. O. A. Feldon, Mrs. John Nuzum, Mrs. Harley Halvorsen, Mrs. Adolor J. Petit, Jr., Mrs. John Mitchell, and Mrs. Marvin Harms. Mrs. Feldon and Mrs. Petit are residents of Winnetka, the others live in Wilmette.
