

Recorder Players Entertain Chi Omegas

Staff Photo

The six Kenilworth girls in the picture above will play a musical program on recorders, primitive flutes dating from the time of Shakespeare, at the Guest Day tea to be held by the North Shore Alumnae of Chi Omega sorority at the chapter house on the Northwestern university campus on Friday, April 21. The girls, shown holding their instruments, are: Marcia Seely, Miss Margaret Davenport, director of the group and teacher of music at Joseph Sears school; Barbara Weishaar, Eleanor Feltman, Lois Hawley, Nancy Hoetger, and Carolyn Stein.

SILK STOCKINGS

Sheer as mist . . . only one thread . . . but the new French sheer twist strengthens it to amazing durability. The special twist and dainty but strong reinforcements at points of wear make "the sheerest stocking in the world" as lasting as it is lovely. The new colors for spring and summer costumes, of course.
