

Theta Alumnae Place Two Events On April Schedule

Evanston and North Shore alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta have scheduled two events for April. The first of these will be a musicale presented by Theta members on Wednesday afternoon, April 19, at 2:30 at the Theta house, 619 University place, Evanston. The second affair will be a spring dinner-dance in the Marine dining room of the Edgewater Beach hotel Friday evening, April 28, at 7:30. Arrangements for both are in charge of Mrs. William J. Lavery, program chairman.

Appearing on the musicale program will be Mrs. Herbert Taylor of Park Ridge who will sing a group of Spanish songs in costume, and her daughter, Beverley Taylor, a student in the Northwestern university school of speech, who will give a group of humorous readings. Motion pictures of the last Theta convention will be shown by the alumna chapter delegate, Mrs. H. A. Morrison, and a group of girls from the active chapter will sing Theta songs.

Tea arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Arthur O. Klauser and the following committee: Mrs. Duncan O. Welty, Jr., Mrs. Fritz Wagner, Jr., Mrs. Clark M. Moore, Mrs. E. A. Ravenscroft, Mrs. Philip F. Icke, and Mrs. Myron F. Ratcliffe.

Thetas from the college chapter as well as from the alumna chapter will attend the dinner dance at the Edgewater Beach and a group of the girls will sing a medley of Theta songs with the orchestra.

Assisting Mrs. Lavery will be Mrs. Leslie A. Wood, recently elected president of the alumna chapter; Mrs. Tusten Ackerman, Mrs. Burt Cochran, Mrs. James L. Shannon, and Miss June Christopherson.

Bowling Dinner

Members of the bowling league of the Western Adjustment company will play their final games of this season's tournament next Wednesday night at Shawnee Country club. The bowling will be followed by dinner.

In Charge of Ticket Sales for "Frolics"

Miss Miriam Raymer of Hubbard Woods is ticket chairman for the Purple-Maroon Frolics, a benefit dance to be held at the Standard club in Chicago Saturday evening, sponsored jointly by the Hillel foundation of Northwestern University and the Jewish Student foundation of the University of Chicago.

The affair, one of the first attempts to bring students of the two colleges together more often than they have met in the past, will benefit student refugee aid on the two campuses. Rare entertainment is promised for the dance, with Junie Griggs and his Colonial club orchestra supplying the music. Kelsey Pharr, singing star of "Guess Again," the recent Waa-Mu show, and an act from Chicago's Black Friar show, will be on the bill, along with celebrities now appearing on the stages of Chicago theaters it is announced. North Shore committee members, in addition to Miss Raymer, are Tommy Nathan of Highland Park, Marion Goldstein of Winnetka, arrangements and decorations, and Sylvia Willner of Evanston, program chairman. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Alpha Gamma Deltas Plan Reunion Day

Members of Alpha Gamma Delta living in Chicago and northern Illinois will see former classmates and renew old acquaintances when they meet Saturday, April 22, at the Palmer House to celebrate the sorority's annual international reunion day.

Mrs. R. C. Ferguson, 1947 Thornwood avenue, and Mrs. W. B. Wiemers, 1424 Forest avenue, Wilmette are helping to arrange the program for the day.

Miss Mildred Flaskered will give a talk on Hawaii. Musical numbers by various members of the sorority will follow, and group singing of Alpha Gamma Delta songs will complete the program.
