

FINAL CONCERT

In Orchestra Hall, Sunday afternoon, April 23, Hans Lange conducts the fifth and last of the programs given by the Civic orchestra this season. No soloist is scheduled. Monday afternoon, April 24, in the Crystal Ballroom of the Blackstone hotel, Hans Lange will conduct the fourth of his Chamber orchestra concerts, the final of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morton, 1050 Forest avenue, have returned from a three weeks' automobile trip to Florida. They went to Miami and on their return spent Easter with Mrs. Morton's brother in Jackson, Tenn.

Dale Chronic, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chronic, 521 Sixth street, underwent a tonsillectomy at the Evanston hospital Saturday morning.

Ernest Hunts Return From Trip to El Paso

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Hunt, 142 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, are home from a trip to El Paso, Texas. Mrs. Hunt left a month ago to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Morris of El Paso. From there she and Mrs. Morris made a trip to the fair in San Francisco and to Los Angeles. When they returned to El Paso they were joined by Mr. Hunt and his grandson, Ernest Rettig of Evanston, who went down by plane. On their way home Mr. and Mrs. Hunt and Ernest stopped in Kansas City.

Mrs. Margaret Eppig and her daughter, Rita, 827 Ashland avenue, who spent the winter season at Phoenix, Ariz., returned home last week-end.

K. OF C. LEAGUE

Even though their captain was missing last Thursday Hick Krier went out and won two games from Wilmette Battery while Ace Motors lost three games to Wilmette Tailors. That puts Hick Krier and Ace Motors tied for first place with fifty-three won and thirty-four lost. Carl Schwall is not saying anything about the race but he and his team known as Mac's Confectionery are just plugging away and are really threatening the leaders. They are only two games out of the lead. At the rate they have been going they have a good chance to come out on top. Out of the last forty-two games they have won thirty-one and lost eleven. Dick Miller took top honors for the evening with a series of 688. After failing to reach the 200 mark for a month, he stepped out and rolled three of them in one series. He had games of 213, 237 and 289. That's knocking them over Dick. Other members of the two hundred club last week were S. Steffens 222, Ph. Bleser 213, J. Holsheimer, M. Kneip, E. Shanahan and P. Bleser, 207, M. Braum and E. Bleser 203, R. Rengle 202 and T. Hermes 200.

N. U. Gridders to Engage in Intra- Squad Game Apr. 22

Northwestern university's football team entered the second half of spring practice this week when school reopened following the Easter vacation.

The spring drills will terminate Saturday, April 22, in the annual Intra-Squad game at Dyche stadium. The game will be regulation in every respect with Big Ten officials in charge and the Northwestern band adding to the football atmosphere.

Fifty players including a dozen let-termen and a large group of freshmen have participated in spring practice this year. The coaching staff has concentrated its attention on the newcomers who by now are becoming versed in the Wildcat style of play.

Among the veterans who have turned out for practice this spring and who will be divided between the two teams in the final game are Ollie Hahnenstein, Paul Soper, Iggy Mesec and Dick Richards, backs; Paul Hiemenz, center; Hal Method and Don Guritz, guards; Nick Cutlich, Frank Young and Corne Aarts, tackles, and Ted Greffe, end.

The game will be the first varsity appearance of the freshmen, a number of whom are waging strong fights for positions on next fall's team.

Among the backs who have turned in promising performances this spring are Bill DeCorrevont, former Austin high school star; Don Kruger of Fenwick high school, Chicago; Floyd Chambers of Salt Lake City; Ike Kepford of Muskegon, Mich.; Dick Erdlitz of Oshkosh, Wis.; Don Clawson of Kankakee and George Benson of Hammond.

Leading line candidates among the yearlings are Don Johnson of Chicago and Gene Mundy of Mt. Carmel, Ill., centers; Alf Bauman of Chicago and Dave Ringwalt of Oakley, Kansas, tackles; George Maggos of Chicago and Merrill Heagy of Aurora, guards; William Swigert of Evanston and Duane Clemond of Storm Lake, Iowa, ends.

LEGION LEAGUE
