

Barat College to Welcome Alumnae Conference May 15

After registration at the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Chicago, Monday, May 15, the fourth Biennial conference of the Associated Alumnae of the Sacred Heart will open a three-day session at Barat College of the Sacred Heart in Lake Forest Tuesday morning, May 16.

Following Mass at 9 a.m., the conference will officially open at 9:45 with the call to order by the national president, Mrs. Arturo Orena of San Francisco. The entire morning will be spent at the Lake Forest school, and the program will include the first paper of a symposium on Education at the Sacred Heart, which will be given by Mother Eleanor Regan, president of Duchesne college. Her subject will be "Education of Children in Colonial Days."

At 1 o'clock the group will attend a "Who's Who" luncheon at the Lake Shore Athletic club in Chicago, to be followed by a short entertainment period. The afternoon session, beginning at 3:15 o'clock, will be held at the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Chicago. At this time the reports of the president and other national officers and national chairmen will be heard.

Lake Forest will be the scene of the entire day's activities on Wednesday, May 17. The reports of the alumnae presidents will be followed by the second paper of the symposium, to be delivered by Mother Margaret Reilly, dean of Barat college, who will speak on "The Christian Education Program of St. Madeleine Sophie in the Light of Modern Psychology."

Presidents of the various alumnae groups will be honored guests at a luncheon at Onwentsia Country club in Lake Forest that day. Hostesses will be Mrs. John Bremner, Mrs. Frederick Clifford, Miss Joanna Fortune, Mrs. Michael O'Brien and Mrs. Walter Smith. Afternoon activities will be again taken up at Barat after luncheon and in the evening a dinner will be given at the South Shore Country club in Chicago. Hostesses for this affair will be Mrs. Edward Bagley, Mrs. Claude Baker, Mrs. Charles Byrne, Mrs. Maurice Byrne, Mrs. William Healy, Mrs. Edwin Lawlor and Mrs. John Powell.

Mass will be held for out-of-town visitors at the Chicago convent at 8 o'clock on Thursday, closing day of the conference. Following committee reports the third paper of the symposium, "Humanities and Their Place in the College Curriculum," will be delivered by Mother Helen Casey, Dean of Duchesne college, at the Chicago convent that morning.

Reports of the nominating committee will be heard after luncheon at the Woman's Athletic club. Nominations will also be made from the floor and election and installation of national officers of the Sacred Heart Alumnae will mark the close of the business of the conference. Benedictions at 5 p. m. will follow.

Prepare for Parents' Fete at Wisconsin U.

Among the 60 students at the University of Wisconsin who are serving on a half-dozen different committees making plans for the annual Parents' Week-end to be held May 19-21 at the state university are three from Winnetka. They are Ned Smith, on the Bulletin committee; Dorothy Boettiger, chairman of the banquet committee, and Arthur Neilson, member of the banquet committee.

With the aid of a faculty committee appointed by Pres. C. A. Dykstra, the student committees are busy these days arranging a varied program which will entertain the hundreds of mothers and fathers of Wisconsin students who are expected to attend the event this year for three days. Last year, more than 1,200 parents were guests of their student sons and daughters during the week-end.

Wilmette Girls Will Be Stephens Pupils

A busy summer of work and study is in store for a group of outstanding Stephens college students who this week were awarded scholarships to the annual summer art school at Stephens college, May 31 to July 11.

Their instructors will be Adolf Dehn, well-known lithographer and artist, whose works have appeared in "New Yorker," "Fortune" and "Coronet," and who recently won a Guggenheim award; and Victor Christ-Janer of the Yale University School of Fine Arts. The group will spend six weeks sketching in and around Columbia, completing water colors for a winter exhibition.

An exhibit of 29 pictures, done by last summer's students, is now on tour throughout the United States.

Students enrolling from Wilmette include: Miss Marjorie Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Arnold, 920 Greenwood avenue, and Miss Irene Freund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Freund, 519 Michigan avenue.

Plan Parley Will Meet in Decatur

Illinois sixth annual planning conference will be held at the Decatur club, Decatur, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 9 and 10.

The meeting is under the sponsorship of the Illinois State Planning commission and the Bureau of Community Planning of the University of Illinois, in cooperation with the American Planning and Civic association; the Illinois Municipal League; the Chicago Regional Planning association and the American Society of Planning Officials.

Will Preside

Robert Kingery, of Winnetka, chairman of the Illinois State Planning commission, will preside at the Tuesday morning session, when the principal topic will be "Municipal Planning and Zoning."

Among the speakers at this session will be Alexander H. Marshall, Village attorney of Glencoe, and chairman of the legal section of the Illinois Municipal League. His subject will be, "Zoning Practices in the Light of Recent Court Decisions."

Our Experienced Decorators

are helpful to you and will achieve the effect you want in your own home using much of what you have and adding a new covering for chair or davenport, new draperies to give your wanted effect. Consult us and let us prove our decorators are men of knowledge who work with your interest in mind.

Our new spring hand blocked linens are now in stock, exclusive designs and colorings.

OUR BUDGET PLAN

Gives you the enjoyment of your home furnishings while paying for them.

C. C. SNYDER, Inc.

1743 Sherman Ave.

Gre. 7141

From Duluth to New Orleans, from Auckland to London,
Come Visitors to Evanston's Early American Inn,

THE HOMESTEAD

RATES

$3.00 to $10.00
per day

Also Weekly and Monthly Rates

1, 2, 3, and 4
ROOM SUITES

"There is No Tipping"

HINMAN AVE.
North of Davis St.

