Fergus Falls Is Lincoln-Robinson Wedding Locale

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lucine Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robb E. Lincoln of Fergus Falls, Minn., to Dr. William Gordon Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Robinson of 456 Elder lane, Winnetka took place August 4, in the Federated church in Fergus Falls. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. W. Hallett, rector of St. James Episcopal church.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of cream chiffon over taffeta and a Juliet cap of old lace. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Miss Katherine Lincoln, who was her maid of honor and only attendant, was costumed in a frock of lime green organdy of the same period, also a part of her mother's trousseau, and carried a bouquet of yellow and white daisies. Dr. Robinson was attended by Dr. Baxter Smith of the University hospital, Minneapolis. Harry Barnard Lincoln and Thomas A. Lincoln were ushers.

A wedding luncheon and reception for members of the family was held at the bride's home immediately following the ceremony, after which Dr. Robinson and his bride departed on a wedding trip which took them to Duluth and thence by the Great Lakes to Detroit. They are now at home in Hart, Mich., where Dr. Robinson is practicing medicine.

Mrs. Robinson was graduated from Carleton college and received her M. A. degree from Smith college. For the past year she has been a member of the faculty of the Milwaukee Downer seminary. Dr. Robinson also received his B. A. degree from Carleton college and is a graduate of the Northwestern university school of medicine.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bridegroom's father and mother and his brother, Frank Robinson, all of Winnetka, Miss Ione Seafeld of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Terry of Madison, Wis., Mrs. G. E. Tallmadge of St. Paul, and Miss Ruth Lincoln, of Wahpeton.

D.A.R. Places Wreath On Fort Dearborn Day

Mr. Edward H. Elwood of Chicago, regent of Fort Dearborn chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, placed a wreath, representing the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, in the Fort Dearborn Day ceremony on Tuesday, August 15, at noon. The ceremony took place at the Michigan avenue Link bridge, which is the approximate site of the old Fort Dearborn.

Various patriotic organizations in and around Chicago participated in this anniversary of the destruction of the old fort by Indians in the War of 1812. The United States government established the original frontier post of Fort Dearborn in 1804. After the massacre in 1812, the fort was rebuilt in 1816, at which time a permanent settlement was started.

These wreaths were to be left on the old site for three days in commemoration of the brave settlers of Fort Dearborn.

Alpha Phis Will Have Next Cozy in Glencoe

Miss Dorothy Wieboldt will be hostess to the Northwestern university chapter of Alpha Phi at her home, 5 Briar lane, Glencoe, from 2 until 5, Friday, August 18.

Among the alumnae who will be present will be Mrs. LeRoy Shelton of Glencoe, president of the North Shore Alumnae association; Mrs. Harold Tideman of Kenilworth, president of the Alpha Phi House board; and Mrs. Ralph Strader of Evanston, vice-president of the National association.

Many of the girls of the active chapter who have been away this summer will be back from their travels in time to attend the meeting.

Elmer Beckers Announce Daughter's Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Becker, 519 Linden avenue, Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Georgette Mars, to Barclay Van Cott Jones, son of Mrs. Lillian Y. Jones of 1002 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette.

The young couple made known their engagement during a summer formal dance at the Country Club of Evanston on August 12. Miss Becker attended Northwestern university where she was a member of the Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Jones graduated in civil engineering from the Armour Institute of Technology.

A definite date for the wedding has not been set.

Marion Miller, James Park, Jr., Will Marry Soon

Saturday, September 2, will be the wedding day of Miss Marion Miller of Wilmette and James R. Park, Jr., of Evanston. The ceremony will take place at 9:30 o'clock in the morning at St. Joseph's church in Wilmette, with the assisting pastor, the Rev. Joseph Schmei, officiating. A wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Miller, 1501 Washington avenue, and in the evening a reception will be held in Evanston.

All of the attendants are from Wilmette. Mrs. John N. Miller, sister-in-law of the bride, will be matron of honor, and Miss Lucille Krause and Miss Virginia Corrigan will be bridesmaids.

Robert Miller, brother of the bride, will serve as best man and John Welter and John N. Miller will usher.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Parks of Evanston.

Two showers were given in the spring for Miss Miller, one at which Mrs. John N. Miller was hostess, on April 2, and one which Mrs. Edward Zeimet of Evanston gave on April 9. The former shower was of personal gifts, the latter, miscellaneous.
