

"Have a Heart" Tag Day Will Be Conducted Next Monday

As contributing members of some of the 50 charitable institutions belonging to both the Chicago Federated Charities and Associated Charities, many workers residing in the North Shore area will be active in conducting the annual "Have a Heart" Tag Day Monday, September 11, throughout Chicago and suburbs.

These local residents will be among the 5,000 women who will distribute the familiar red tag throughout the streets of Chicagoland for the 23rd annual drive in behalf of many miscellaneous welfare agencies not included in the regular Community Chest campaign.

Approximately $50,000 is being sought in the drive next Monday, according to a joint statement by Mrs. Frank Specht, president of the Federated Charities, and Mrs. Louis Savitt, head of the Associated Charities.

"Will you have a heart?" is not only a plea to the generosity of Chicagoland, but is an opportunity for every man, woman, and youth to share in the support of charities that have no other means of conveniently soliciting the great number of small contributions so vital in maintaining their programs of social service, the joint statement pointed out.

Included in the list of agencies this year are: free clinics and hospitals; children's homes; sanatoriums for tuberculosis, aged, and indigent; institutions for convalescent men, women, and children; day nurseries for children of working parents; social centers for adolescent youth who need vocational and recreational guidance; and immediate relief societies who bridge the gap between temporary hard luck and long-term relief.

GUIDE - LECTURE TOURS

"Dinosaurs and Their Cousins" will be the subject of a guide-lecture tour for the general public to be presented at Field Museum of Natural History Monday, September 11, at 3 o'clock. On Tuesday and Thursday at the same hour there will be general tours of anthropological, botanical, geological, and zoological exhibits; on Wednesday the subject will be "Men of the Old Stone Age," and on Friday "The Story of Plants." These tours are open to all museum visitors. Parties assemble inside the north entrance.

$15,000 to $35,000 and Many Years of Study to Become A DOCTOR

THIS IS THE FIRST of a series of talks, that will appear in this newspaper throughout the year, on the Doctor—and what Medical Science is accomplishing toward the health of the individual and the community.

You know, of course, that for an M. D. to qualify as a practicing physician, it is necessary that many years be spent in study, preparation and practice.

The average time consumed by a Doctor in study, preparation and unproductive practice is around twelve years. These unproductive years and the actual money spent totals from $15,000 to $35,000, depending on the individual, and sources of education.
