

The Voice of Sport

by Woody Wilson

A Friend Gone

Woody Wilson Photo

G. Stanley Sandvig (above), New Trier High school physical education director, died at Swedish Covenant hospital at 11 o'clock last Saturday evening. "Sandy," as he was affectionately known, had for some weeks waged a seemingly successful battle with rheumatic fever, only to suffer a sudden relapse.

A general call for blood donors was made during the intermission of the New Trier-Evanston football game at Dyche stadium. Dozens of faculty members, students, and former students responded instantly. "Sandy" rallied slightly after receiving blood from Dave Koolish, graduate of New Trier. At 11 o'clock he asked for a glass of water, sipped it, then quietly passed on.

In his capacity as gymnasium instructor and baseball coach "Sandy" was a dynamic leader, whose directness of speech and manner won the admiration of the hundreds of boys with whom he came in contact.

The school has lost a valued member of its faculty, but more important — the youth of the community have lost one of their finest champions.

Ouch! Evanstonian Team Wins, 20 to 0

Two first-quarter touchdowns and another in the fourth frame gave Evanston High a 20 to 0 win over New Trier in the concluding game of the 1939 Suburban league football season, at Dyche stadium last Saturday. It gave them a final league record of four losses and one victory.

Previously NT had beaten Morton, 6 to 0, and had lost to Waukegan (3 to 0), Proviso (14 to 0), Oak Park (13 to 0).

The decisive evident factors in the Dyche game may be listed fumbles, interceptions, laterals, penalties and Bill Wheeler. New Trier made the fumbles, got the break on practically all the penalties. Evanston used interceptions, laterals and Bill Wheeler to deadly advantage.

Right-End Run

It started when Co-captain Gordie Laughead, running back the first Evanston punt of the contest, fumbled as he was tackled on his own 42. Evanston executed a right end run on their second play. As End Fred Hurlbutt and Halfback Jim Sinclair were drawn to make the tackle, the ball-carrier flipped a lateral wide to a teammate, who raced almost unmolested for the first score. The conversion was perfect.

Two successive first downs seemed to put the Trevs back into the fight following that first heart-breaker. Runs of seven and nine yards by Jack Walker and Sinclair, respectively, featured this revival.

Rally is Nipped

The Trier rally was nipped in the bud by an Evanston pass interception. On this play, New Trier was again the victim of the lateral. The lad who grabbed the pass was thrown hard by Trevian tacklers, but as he went down he tossed a back-pass to another Wildkit. This guy ran 50 yards for his touchdown, whereas the first one had been only a 43-yard gallop. There was no point-after made this time.

To the Evanston 40 went the grey and green, via a first down by Sinclair and a 15-yard penalty assessed against his opponents. A moment later Evanston took possession of the oval on a pass-interception.

Intercept Lateral

Again, in the third quarter, the locals plugged down to the enemy 25. Laughead was thrown on the 15 after hugging Sinclair's pass. Evanston once more killed the threat by intercepting an aerial.

Throughout most of the battle, New Trier's line turned back the offensive thrusts of the Wildkits. NT had out-gained their opponents by a good margin on straight football. Then up popped Mr. Wheeler again in the closing canto. He had been making a nuisance of himself all afternoon (from the New Trier viewpoint). On his favorite play, a weak-side slice or cutback, he started to the right after getting the ball from center, then pivoted fast to slice through the left side of his line. He outfooted a pair of Triermen down the sideline, running 79 yards for the touchdown. The kick was good.

Wheeler's gallop was set up by an N fumble on the E 21.

One Evanston touchdown was disallowed because two forward passes were made in the play. It had been intended as a lateral-forward, and a beautiful, beautiful attempt it was!

The New Trier varsity was to hold on election to select next year's captain, Tuesday of this week.

Nay's Eleven Takes Intramural Crown

Nay's touch football team clinched the all-school crown at New Trier High school on Monday, by defeating Bridges, 6 to 0, in the final 10 seconds of play. The winning touchdown came on a pass which was blocked into the hands of a Nay player. An over-time period had been necessary to decide their first battle, Bridges winning, 1-0.

Entry sheets for I-M basketball were this week being received in DeForrest Showley's office. The freshmen tournament has already been completed; the latter will next enter into track competition. This activity will get under way in a couple of weeks.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Collins, 2033 Chestnut avenue, and their daughters, Betty and Frances, will spend Thanksgiving at Ringwood, Ill., with Mr. Collins' father, the Rev. H. J. Collins. This will be a family reunion and a seventieth birthday celebration for the host.

Miss Betty Ann Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Fuller, 78 Robsart road, Kenilworth, spent last week-end at the University of Wisconsin as a guest at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. She was accompanied by a friend, Miss Helen Evans of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Joyce of Tipton, Ind., will spend Thanksgiving week-end with Mr. Joyce's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson V. Joyce, 835 Michigan avenue.

Studio Couch ... A Limited Number Only—SALE

A $28.75 Value
Reduced to $18⁷⁵

Has three cushions.
Metal frame. Top mattress has inner-
spring construction.
Make into two twin beds or full size bed.

Your Choice of Five Colors

"The Mattress Store"

BRAUCH'S SLUMBER SHOP

1506 Sherman Ave., Evanston

UNI. 2820

HAND WEAVING
Unique Christmas Gifts
Ties - Scarfs - Men's Suits
Luncheon Sets - Baby Blankets
Pillow Covers - Drapery Fabrics
Ladies' Suits and Dress Material
Actual weaving at
THE SHUTTLE STUDIO
902 Linden Ave. Hubbard Woods

DOLL HOUSES

Substantially built of plywood—completely decorated—floors stained—electric lights—Modern and Colonial designs.
Also hand-made furniture of exquisite design and craftsmanship.

Prices $9 to $22

ARLINE ROSS

154 Green Bay Rd., Winnetka

Chimneys Bldg.

10 to 4:30 Daily—All Day Sundays

AT OLSEN & EBANN

FOR KEENEST ENJOYMENT IN GIFT GIVING...

Give ELGIN

Distinctively styled in the smart modern manner. 10-K natural gold filled case with smart attachment. Guaranteed dependable 17-jewel Elgin "De Luxe."

$39⁷⁵

75c A WEEK

Convenient terms add nothing to the nationally advertised cash price.

EASY
TERMS

PAY NEXT YEAR

614 Davis Street

Evanston

GREENleaf 1600