At Catholic Club

The fine arts program which the chairman, Mrs. F. L. Kaye, sponsored Friday, November 10, for the Woman's Catholic Club of Wilmette, at the Woman's club, was a marked success. The program was divided into three parts. The first was a book review by Mrs. George Steele, "Biography of a Family," by Milton Waldman. Mrs. Steele gave a most comprehensive and scholarly review. The historical background of the famous de Medici family was very clearly outlined and made very real and interesting by the reviewer.

The second part of the program was a violin recital by Miss Betty McCaugh, who is a senior in music at Mundelein college, director of the French chorus and member of the Glee club, the orchestra and the stringed quartette. Miss McCaugh was a most charming young person, endowed with great ability and skill. Her numbers were interspersed through the fashion show that followed. Her first number was Cavalleria Rusticana, Hungarian Dance No. 5. "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I'm in Love With Vienna."

The third part was the most amazing fashion show that the club members had ever witnessed. It was most amusing and at times extremely hilarious. The models certainly lived up to the clothes and characters that they impersonated. The following were the models, Mrs. Thomas Ditchfield, Mrs. Robert Fonham,

Mrs. William Genner, Mrs. F. L. Kaye, Mrs. Frank J. Kracha, Mrs. George Lundy, Mrs. John J. Manley, Mrs. Fred M. Clarke, Mrs. Hugh Welter and Mrs. Frank J. Rothling.

The club members saw themselves as they had dressed twenty years ago. The wedding costume was fifty-five years old, a gorgeous satin and lace gown and Mrs. Ditchfield as the bride, brought us back to the days of our grandmothers.

Mrs. A. A. Fricke, Jr., read the lines of the skit and Mrs. George Lundy wrote the continuity which was very clever and most appropriate. The following were the fashions modeled, foundations garments, skating costume, tennis, bathing, hiking, riding, daytime frocks, tea frocks, dinner dresses, evening dresses and wraps.

Mrs. M. B. Morris played the piano for the models and chose music such as "Long Long Ago," and "Skater's Waltz." The afternoon was a grand success and the members owe Mrs. Kaye a great debt of gratitude for a most enjoyable entertainment.

Mrs. George Lundy, membership chairman, announced the names of the new members; Miss Margaret Struvy, Mrs. John L. Crowley. The following were re-instated — Mrs. John Thull, Mrs. H. O. Pinonnault, Mrs. Arthur Adams, and Mrs. A. Hunter.

A social hour followed with Mrs. John J. Tracey and Mrs. A. W. Withrow, hostesses. —F.D.
