

'Union Now' Author Addresses Monday Meet in Evanston

Clarence K. Streit, author of "Union Now," who will address a public meeting in the First Methodist church, Evanston, on Monday evening, November 27, at 8 has won an imposing list of supporters for his idea of a federal union of free peoples as a cure for international anarchy.

These include Maj. Gen. Frank M. McCoy, U. S. Army; Frank A. Silcox, Chief of the U. S. Forest Service; Lord Lothian, British ambassador at Washington; Henry A. Denison, president of Dennison Mfg. Co.; Walter Winchell, Alexander Woolcott, Dorothy Thompson; William Allen White, Emporia, Kans.; Lionel Curtis, a founder of the Union of South Africa; Firmin Roz, Membre-de L'institut, Paris; Count Sforza, Ex-foreign Minister, Italy; Siegfried Charoux, Viennese sculptor, now a political exile in London; Manley Hudson, judge in the World court, the Hague; Wickham Steed, former editor of the Times, London; Leonard Lyall, former president, Permanent Central Opium board, Geneva; Brig. Gen. George D. Strong, general staff, U. S. Army; Bruce C. Hopper, associate professor of government, Harvard; James E. Warburg, Bank of the Manhattan company, New York; Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore college; Ernest H. Wilkins, president of Oberlin college.

North Shore Supporters

Interest has been no less on the North Shore where the following people have cooperated to have this idea presented:

From Evanston: Dr. Emory Luccock, Dr. Ernest Fremont Tittle, Mrs. Charles C. Wells, Mr. David Walker, Mrs. O. B. Roberts, Mrs. W. A. Stults, Mr. and Mrs. E. Todd Wheeler, Mrs. Marion Gould Cotton, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller, and Dr. Clifford Newham.

From Wilmette: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McAfee, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Williams, Mrs. Tenna Turner, president Wilmette Teachers organization; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandt, Mrs. Henry Drucker, Dr. R. H. Henderson.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Schmidt of 1111 Merrill street, Hubbard Woods, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bernice, to Clarence Alfred Arndt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Arndt of Chicago.

Mrs. C. G. Weston, 343 Washington avenue, recently returned from a trip to Denver, Colo., where she visited her mother.

Girl Scouts

Mrs. Arnold White, director, is to give a course in group leadership. The course will be given in the Scout office and the dates for the first four meetings are as follows: Tuesday, November 21, at 1:15 p.m.; Monday, November 27, at 1:15 p.m.; Wednesday, November 29, at 9:30 a.m.; and December 6, at 9:30 a.m. There will be eight meetings in the series, the last four of which will be held after the first of January. New members are welcome. This course is intended for new brownie and intermediate leaders.

Two members of the regional staff, Miss Nancy Daley and Miss Florence Otto, are to give a course in Park Ridge, December 12, 13, and 14. There will be four courses: 1. for new leaders; 2. for experienced leaders; 3. for council members; 4. for committee members. The sessions are to be held at 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. at St. Mary's parish house in Park Ridge. For information about transportation anyone interested can call the Scout office.

Pack 21 had two fly-ups scheduled for Monday, November 20, Louise Brown and Angela Van Patten. They are to enter troop 11.

Eleanor McCurdy from pack 24 will fly up to troop 10 this week.

On November 24, Friday, the girls who were at the troop camp this summer will have a reunion at Mrs. Hans Dernehl's home at Lake Zurich.

On Monday, November 27, the Brownie leaders are having a nature round table at Mrs. Sprague Chapin's home, 236 Laurel avenue. Mrs. Leon B. Kendall is the leader.

Wilmette Student Joins College Literary Group

Miss Virginia McGurk of Wilmette, a junior student at Texas State College for Women, has been initiated into one of the eleven literary and social clubs on the campus.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McGurk, 1634 Highland avenue, Miss McGurk pledged the Chaparral club. She is majoring in dietetics at the college.

New members dressed and acted according to the wishes of veteran members of the club for three days. Informal initiation was followed by a formal social affair and a solemn ceremony when pledges became official members.

AWAY ON THANKSGIVING

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Becker, 328 Raleigh road, Kenilworth, with their twin daughters, Frances and Lucille, left Wilmette Wednesday to have Thanksgiving dinner in St. Louis with another daughter, Betty, who is at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo. Recently she pledged Eta Epsilon Gamma.

Thomas Wosser, 1424 Wilmette avenue, is confined to the Evanston hospital where he is recovering from injuries received when he fell from a ladder October 20 and broke his pelvis bone and hip.
