

Opera Ball Plans Take Shape; Dec. 22 Is Day

There has been much cogitating on the idea of giving an Opera ball this Winter. Mrs. James G. McMillan, of Winnetka, president of the Illinois Opera guild, announces that the guild has decided to give the party.

"Dance Among the Stars" is the slogan which the guild members have adopted in preparing their invitations for the Christmas Opera ball to be given at the Drake on Friday, December 22. There will be three chairman of the ball committee — Mrs. Louis E. McCauley of Winnetka, Mrs. Millard B. Kennedy of Evanston, and Mrs. L. Lewis Cohen of Highland Park.

Henry Weber has been invited to be master of ceremonies and an auction of dolls, dressed as opera stars, is one of the features planned.

Many theatrical and radio stars who are in the city will be guests in addition to the members of the opera company.

FAMILY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drake of Glencoe entertained at a Thanksgiving party for several members of their family. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. James D. Swan, Jr., of Green Turtle farm, Delavan, and their three children; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Swan and their infant son, of Chicago; James D. Swan and Miss Elizabeth Swan of Wilmette; Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Drake, Jr., of Glencoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Keith Drake of Glencoe.

RETURN SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ashley, former residents of Wilmette, after spending several months in Wilmette with Mrs. H. Y. Sutherland, 830 Lake avenue, have left for the South, Mrs. Ashley to return to their home in Stuart, Fla., and Mr. Ashley to Richmond, Va., where his business is located at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn O. Sensiba, 737 Cummings avenue, Kenilworth, left Monday on a trip to St. Paul, Mr. Sensiba going on business and Mrs. Sensiba accompanying him.
