

We Respectfully Call to Your Attention Mr. William A. Stewart's Letter on Coffee!

Important Announcement

STEWART & ASHBY COFFEE COMPANY
845 WASHINGTON BLVD.
Chicago

November 30, 1939

TO OUR MANY FRIENDS:

A few weeks ago it became necessary to advance the wholesale price of STEWARTS PRIVATE BLEND COFFEE two cents (2¢) a pound.

This advance was entirely due to the increase in cost of aged Sumatra (Java) coffees used in STEWARTS PRIVATE BLEND, and only represents a portion of our higher cost. So far, other growths of coffee have not been materially affected.

It is our constant aim to always pack the finest coffee money can buy, and in order to maintain our high standard of quality, we were compelled to make this advance. STEWARTS COFFEE is still most economical, because you only use a HEAVING TEASPOONFUL per cup and ... it's really true ... you do make better coffee with STEWARTS on this basis.

We sincerely appreciate the fine patronage given STEWARTS COFFEE by the thousands of friends who enjoy "really good coffee".

Cordially yours,
W. A. Stewart
