

Weddings and Engagements

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Frank Marston Bells To Spend Honeymoon in Miami Beach, Fla.

Frank Marston Bell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hayden Bell of Evanston, and his bride, the former Janet McNulty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Laurance McNulty, 720 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, have gone to Miami Beach, Fla., on their wedding trip. When they return in a few weeks they will be at home in Evanston.

For her marriage, which took place at 4 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at the McNulty home, the bride wore a white satin gown with net yoke, trimmed at the sleeves with lace. The neckline was high, the short sleeves puffed, and the skirt made with a train. Some of the same real lace which trimmed the sleeves formed a halo cap from which fell a veil of fingertip length. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids.

Miss Frances McNulty, her sister's only attendant, wore a full-skirted gown of powder blue starched chiffon trimmed at the neck with seed pearls, and with pearls also sprinkled over the bodice. She carried magenta chrysanthemums, and in her hair was a seed pearl tiara with a few of the chrysanthemums.

Mrs. McNulty, mother of the bride, was in mist blue crepe, du-bonnet hat and du-bonnet orchid corsage, while Mrs. Bell in tan crepe wore a brown hat, and brown orchids and accessories.

Fred G. Gifford of Lake Forest was Mr. Bell's best man.

Baskets of large white chrysanthemums, cibotium fern and candelabra formed an altar at one end of the living room where the ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives by the Rev. Herbert Prince of Lake Forest. After the ceremony a reception which included the close friends was held at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Faxon Responds To Request for Review

By request, "The Life of Andrew Jackson" will be reviewed by Mrs. Lloyd Faxon in the fifth of the series of ten Friday morning book reviews at the Woman's Club of Wilmette, on Friday, December 8, at 10 o'clock in the morning.

This will be the fifth and last of the books to be reviewed by Mrs. Faxon in the series, as a different reviewer will have each of the five programs after Christmas. Each will be a well known reviewer on the North Shore. The first session after Christmas will be Friday, January 12.

The book reviews are one of the projects of the ways and means committee of which Mrs. R. D. Oilar is chairman and are open to the public. They are for the benefit of the club's building fund. Mrs. W. Whitaker Baer has charge of the series and tickets for the rest of the reviews may be secured from her or any of the members of her committee.

In Honolulu

DuBois—The Drake
The former Gertrude Matthews, new Mrs. Willard K. Jaques, and Mr. Jaques have gone to Honolulu on their honeymoon, and will not be at home in Chicago until January. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Matthews, 319 Essex road, Kenilworth, and the son of Willard W. Jaques of Chicago, their marriage took place November 18, at the Kenilworth Union church.

Douglas Hindley and Bride Live in West

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore of Hoopeston, Ill., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Douglas Hindley, son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Hindley of 1035 Lake avenue, Wilmette. The young couple were married November 13, in California and are residing at 1076 West Thirtieth street, Los Angeles.

The bride is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Speech and a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Mr. Hindley, also a graduate of Northwestern in liberal arts, is now teaching and pursuing graduate studies at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles.

Honors December Bride

Mrs. William P. Gates of St. Charles, Ill., entertained at luncheon in the Pump room of the Ambassador last Saturday in honor of Miss Gertrude Lynn of Lake Villa, formerly of Glencoe, whose marriage to J. Miller Brown will take place on December 2. Among the guests were three women who had been bridal attendants at the time Miss Lynn's mother, Mrs. J. Fred Lynn, was married. They were Mrs. Gates, Mrs. William Hoag, and Mrs. John P. Collier of Wilmette, the bride's aunt.

Edwin S. Fetcher, Jr., Engaged to Chicagoan

At two small cocktail parties last week-end, the first at the Edwin S. Fetcher house, 822 Bryant avenue, Saturday afternoon, the other the following day at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Friedrich Wassermann in Chicago, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Gertrude Wassermann to Edwin Stanton Fetcher, Jr. The latter is in the department of physiology at the University of Chicago, and Professor Wassermann is a member of the department of anatomy at the same university. Mr. Fetcher graduated from Harvard and received his doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Chicago.

His fiancée is now studying at the university. She received her preparatory education in Munich, where she was born, and in Switzerland. No date has been set for their wedding.

Leslie Fitz to Marry Chicagoan in New Year

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fitz of 604 Maple avenue, Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Leslie Elizabeth, to Frank Lovering, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Lovering of Chicago. Miss Fitz is a graduate of Kansas State college at Manhattan, Kas., where she majored in home economics, and is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Mr. Lovering, a member of Beta Theta Pi, attended Wabash college in Indiana. Their wedding will be early in the New Year.

Is Engaged

J. D. Toloff Photo
Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Campbell, 1129 Sheridan road, Wilmette, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Virginia, to Thomas Sullivan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Sullivan of 336 Gregory avenue, Wilmette.

Bride Married in Wedding Outfit of Green, Gold, Brown

Wearing a suit of artichoke green and a small gold hat trimmed with brown feathers, Miss Alice Maxine Ebeling was married in a simple informal ceremony last Saturday to William Gibb McFadzean of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McFadzean of Winnetka. Brown accessories completed her costume, and her flowers were chrysanthemums in harmonizing autumn shades.

The Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard of Christ church in Winnetka officiated at the candle light ceremony, which took place before the mantel of the Ebeling home, decorated with palms, ferns and chrysanthemums.

Both the bride and bridegroom were unattended, but stretching ribbons for the ceremony, the same ones used for the wedding of the bride's parents, were two sisters, Margaret and Ruth Ebeling, Mary Jean Lewis, Mary Oliver, and Libby McAlpin.

Mrs. Ebeling wore the amethyst silk gown which her godmother had for her grandmother's silver anniversary, and which Mrs. Ebeling's mother wore for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. McFadzean was in wine satin.

Among the guests here for the wedding were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Crandall of Tryon, N. C., Miss Catherine Bousequett of Des Moines, Iowa, the bride's college roommate, and Miss Bousquett's fiancée, Dayl Evans of Clinton, Iowa.

Mr. McFadzean and his bride left on Sunday for Minneapolis where they will make their home.

To Marry in June

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Maistrovich 555 Cherry street, Winnetka, announced the engagement of their daughter, Ann, to Lester J. Sholty, Jr., of Chicago, on Thanksgiving day at their home. Mr. Sholty is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Sholty of Chicago. He graduated from St. John's Military academy and attended the University of Illinois. His fiancée, a New Trier High school graduate, attended Lake Forest college. The wedding has been set for June.

Entertain Over Holiday

William Knepper, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Knepper, 1404 Maple avenue, spent Thanksgiving weekend at home, returning from Lafayette, Ind., where he is a junior at Purdue university. A houseguest of William for the week-end was Richard Shmoyer of Allentown, Pa., a member of the faculty at Purdue. Saturday evening, William was host to five fellow students from Cary hall at the university. On Sunday afternoon, the Kneppers and their guests attended the New York Philharmonic concert in Chicago.