IN RADIO PLAY ROLE

The Stephens college Radio Workshop called out its veteran student actors this week for a difficult half hour production, "The Heart Speaks Out," by a former Stephens girl, Miss Barbara Welts.

The play, a fantasy, was presented over local radio station KFRU as one in a series of weekly Drama Time programs.

Taking one of the major parts was Miss Margarita Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Thompson, 1311 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods.

Grace Line Launches New Liner This Week

The Grace Line announces the launching on December 15 of their new liner, the "Santa Teresa," at Newport News, Va.

Especially designed for the South American trade, the "Santa Teresa" will operate in the Grace Line's South American West Coast service, via the Panama Canal.

The North Shore Travel service, agents for the Grace Line, reports that this line has carried more than 7,094 on its regular cruises to the Caribbean since the beginning of European hostilities.
