

Chapel, School To Be Open to Public Sunday

Parish of Sts. Faith, Hope, and Charity Extends Invitation to All North Shore People

The Rev. Thomas J. Burke, pastor of the Roman Catholic parish of Sts. Faith, Hope, and Charity, and the Dominican sisters who conduct the parish school, this week invited Catholic as well as non-Catholic residents of the North Shore to a tour of inspection of the school and chapel Sunday afternoon, December 17, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Recently, the parish of Saints Faith, Hope and Charity completed the erection of the new school and chapel. It is of modern colonial design, situated on Hill road between Linden street and Ridge avenue in Winnetka.

The school portion of the building facing Ridge avenue contains eight class rooms, a library, music rooms, and a kindergarten.

The chapel portion faces Linden street. Ornamented ceiling, fluted pilasters, rich walnut panels, pews trimmed in white and walnut, suspended lighting fixtures of remarkable elegance—all combine to arouse prayerful devotion before a distinctively simple altar of blue and white and gold. The first mass in the chapel was offered on Thanksgiving day. Since then daily mass is offered at 7:30 o'clock and Sunday masses at 7, 8, 10, and 12 o'clock.

TO SPEND HOLIDAYS HERE

Miss Pat (Patricia) Empfield, who is in her first year at Mary Baldwin college in Staunton, Va., will come to Wilmette Saturday afternoon for the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Porter Empfield of 915 Greenleaf avenue. She spent the Thanksgiving week-end with a classmate, Miss Ann Garrett, in High Point, N. C. Miss Cassie Empfield, a junior at Grinnell college, is expected home Friday evening of this week.

BABA'I LECTURE

"World Religion the Basis of World Order" is the subject of a talk to be delivered by Carl Scheffler of Evanston at the Sunday afternoon meeting in Foundation hall, Baha'i Universal House of Worship at Linden avenue and Sheridan road, Wilmette. The meeting is at 3:30 on December 17. The Children's Hour will meet in Foundation hall at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

CHRISTMAS VISITOR

Mrs. Charles E. Waldron, Jr., and her baby daughter, will arrive in Wilmette from their home in Kansas City, Mo., Monday, to spend Christmas with Mrs. Waldron's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford of 835 Elmwood avenue. Mr. Waldron will join his family here the latter part of next week in time for Christmas and a brief visit afterwards.

HOME FOR VACATION

Miss Barbara Deane Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Clark, 1025 Mohawk road, will return on Sunday for her Christmas vacation from Sweet Briar college, Sweet Briar, Va. Miss Clark spent the week-end of December 2, in Philadelphia, where she attended the Army-Navy football game.

School Buzzing With Party Preparations

(contributed)

The Farm School in Northbrook is buzzing with Christmas preparations. The children are busy designing and making Christmas presents for their parents and cards for many of their friends. Rooms are being decorated with holly and bells, and carols are being learned for the Christmas party which is to be held on Friday afternoon, December 22, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Every year at this time parents and children gather to share a common experience before Christmas. They have a social hour during which games are played by parents and children alike. Santa himself pays a visit, bringing a gift and a laugh for each child. The staff presents a short program for the children, but the climax of the afternoon is the singing of carols from many lands. The children, wearing colored capes, gather 'round the Christmas tree and sing carols old and new directed by Mrs. Dorothy Dushkin and finally parents and children join together in singing some of the more familiar songs for this season.

MOVE HERE FROM WEST

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cederberg, 1730 Wilmette avenue, and two children moved to the village three weeks ago from Denver, Colo. Both children, Billie and Lois, attend Howard school. Mr. Cederberg was transferred to Chicago by Montgomery Ward to be mail order house manager here.
