Two chapters of the Mary Crane Nursery league report forthcoming activity. The Kenilworth group will meet for luncheon Friday, January 26, with Mrs. Winnard Olson hostess at her home, 525 Kenilworth avenue, and Mrs. Frank Bryan of Evanston, co-hostess.

A luncheon and sewing meeting is scheduled for the Mary Myra Lane chapter Wednesday, February 7, at the home of Mrs. Paul Kassell, 7735 Kenton avenue, Ridgeview (Niles Center). The co-hostess is Mrs. R. D. Smith of Evanston, and the guest of honor Mrs. John L. Reichert, newly elected president of the Mary Crane league.

The board of the same chapter will meet for one o'clock luncheon on Tuesday, February 16, at the home of Mrs. Wilfred Reetz, 1035 Monroe street, Evanston.

Birthday Host

Bradley Glass celebrated his ninth birthday with a supper party Wednesday of last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glass, 70 Warwick road, Winnetka. His guests were seven of the boys in his class at the Joseph Sears school.

Soloist at Lodge

Mrs. Harry Cumberland, 119 Fifth street, was the soloist of the evening at the installation of the Vesper Rebekah lodge of Evanston last Tuesday evening.

Vassar Clubs' Luncheon Honors College Warden

The Chicago and North Shore Vassar club will hold a luncheon meeting Saturday, January 27, at 1 o'clock, at the Chicago Athletic association, in honor of Miss Eleanor Dodge, warden of Vassar college.

Miss Dodge will speak on "Current Campus News." Following the talk there will be a quiz period for questions and comments on current life at Vassar, in the manner of radio quizzes.

The parents of students attending college are invited to attend, as are prospective students and their parents, also.

Mrs. Sylvanus George Lee of Winnetka, president of the Chicago Vassar club, will preside.

Jack and Jill Tea

Mrs. Paul Schulze, Jr., 300 Abbot'sford road, Kenilworth, will be hostess at a Jack and Jill tea Monday, January 29. The Jack and Jill shop is a project of the Kenilworth center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago. Its wares are the attractive hand-made baby clothes members of the center sew and knit.

Hostess to Guild

Mrs. J. H. Barnes of 238 Poplar street, Winnetka, entertained the members of the McLaren guild of the Church of the Holy Comforter, on Monday. A group of about twenty met at 10 o'clock for sewing, with luncheon at 12:30 followed by an afternoon of sewing. Mrs. Barnes is the guild's work chairman.

Shawnee Will Have Three Dances for Young Set

Plans for three gala children's parties at the Shawnee Country club next month were announced this week by Mrs. Catherine Rogers, chairman of children's activities at the club.

A Leap Year dance for boys and girls of the seventh and eighth grades is first to be scheduled. Children of club members in these grades will attend, according to Mrs. Carl Bruch, chairman of the Leap Year dance. The reason for this name, she says, is that the girls will buy the "bids" and invite the boys. The party will be held Friday, February 16.

A Valentine party, for boys and girls of high school age, will follow on Saturday afternoon, February 16, under the direction of Mrs. Holland FlaHaven. A unique entertainment program will be given by the Betty Jones School of Dancing. In the evening, the Shawnee High school Swing will be held. An elaborate entertainment program has been prepared, complete with orchestra, chorus and floor show.

To Attend Breakfast

The Skokie Valley chapter, D.A.R. will attend in a body the White breakfast of General Henry Dearborn chapter, Monday, February 12, 12 o'clock noon, in the Gold room of the Congress hotel. The regular monthly meeting which falls on the same day, has been postponed to another day.
