

To Conclude Plans For Tea at Tea for Committee Jan. 30

Final plans for the tea the board of the Evanston Birth Control Center for Family Planning is giving at the home of Mrs. William Warfield, III, 1124 Pine street, Winnetka, on January 31, at 2 o'clock, will be concluded at a tea for the committee in charge the afternoon preceding at Mrs. Warfield's home.

Mrs. Ayres Boal, Jr., of Winnetka, is chairman of arrangements for the tea. Mrs. Fred Williams of Wilmette is chairman of the board, and will speak briefly at the tea on January 31, following the showing of the movie, "Why Let Them Die," which is a dramatic sequence of 360 still pictures synchronized with voices and music. Comments in the film are made by Dr. Harry E. Fosdick, Rabbi Sidney E. Goldstein, and Dr. Prentiss Wilson, as well as other persons of prominence in sociological fields.

Closing minutes of the film are devoted to Mrs. Margaret Sanger who speaks briefly on the ultimate goal of this movement.

Sponsor Guild Theatre Which Opens Tonight

Tonight (Thursday), the newly-formed Guild theatre of Evanston, located at 616 Church street, opens with "Night Must Fall," and, under the direction of Martin Magner, the company will perform on January 25, 26, 27, and 28, again on February 1, 2, 3, and 4, and February 8, 9, 10, and 11.

Sponsors for the guild are:

From Wilmette—Mrs. Hayes McKinney; from Kenilworth—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weese; from Winnetka—Mr. and Mrs. Matthew P. Gaffney and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Dean Murphy.

From Evanston—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fabian, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boettcher, Mrs. Charles Cartwright, and Mrs. R. V. Trusdell.

From Chicago—Mrs. Paul Steinbacher, Miss Sue Ann Wilson, Dr. George de Tarnowsky, Miss Mary Nixon, Mrs. Samuel Wright, Mrs. Wentworth G. Field, and Kourt Adler.

Weds on New Year's

Koehne Photo

Miss Leslie Elizabeth Fitz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Fitz, 604 Maple avenue, Wilmette, became the bride of Frank W. Lovering, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Lovering of Chicago, on New Year's day. White faille taffeta fashioned her wedding gown for the ceremony which took place in the First Presbyterian church of Wilmette. Mr. Lovering and his bride are now making their home in Lincolnwood, Ill.

At Committee Tea

The plans for the annual card party of the Wilmette League of Women Voters to be held on March 27, are moving along smoothly. A committee tea was given by Mrs. William W. Gridley at her home, 1309 Chestnut avenue, on Friday, January 19, at which the following members were present: Mrs. Edwin H. Badger, Mrs. L. C. Banker, Mrs. C. P. Evans, Mrs. John A. Donaldson, Mrs. V. E. LaFave, Mrs. William R. Reece and Miss Ann L. Whitmack.

Alpha Phi Open House

Mrs. LeRoy G. Shelton, 170 Harbor street, Glencoe, held open house Thursday, January 18, for all Alpha Phi sorority girls at Northwestern university. A ping-pong tournament, music, and games were highlights of the afternoon. Mrs. Jessie G. Carr of Beverly Hills, visiting district governor of Alpha Phi, was an honor guest.
