Where to Go

"Night Must Fall"

"Night Must Fall," opening production of the new Guild theatre of Evanston will be seen on January 25, 26, 27 and 28, also February 1, 2, 3, 4, and again on February 8, 9, 10, and 11. Reading from left to right: Don Brockell of Winnetka as Dan, the hero; Gordon Buck of Wilmette as Inspector Belsize of Scotland Yards; Althea Murphy of Winnetka as Olivia Grayne, the feminine lead; and Hope Summers of Evanston as Mrs. Branson, Olivia's elderly Aunt.

Director Ready for "Doctor Takes Wife"

Preparations are under way for the filming of "The Doctor Takes A Wife," scheduled as Alexander Hall's next directorial assignment by William Perlberg, producer.

As yet uncast, "The Doctor Takes A Wife" is an original romantic comedy by Aileen Wetstein. It is being adapted for the screen by George Seaton and Ken Englund and is slated to go before the cameras late in January. Hall's last picture was "The Amazing Mr. Williams," Melvyn Douglas-Joan Blondell co-starring vehicle.

Sends Starlet First Edition of "Peppers"

Better late than never.

That, expressed in gleeful shouts, was Edith Fellows' reaction to a belated Christmas gift received this week—a first edition of one of Margaret Sidney's beloved "Five Little Peppers" novels, published in the 80's. It came from a woman admirer in Boston, Edith's home town.

A collector of first edition children's books, the starlet particularly prizes this new addition because she is playing Polly Pepper in "Five Little Peppers At Home," comedy drama based on the juvenile classics.

TOP CAST

Robert Young and Helen Gilbert head a cast that includes Irina Baronova, famous ballerina, Reginald Owen, Charles Coburn, Lucile Watson and William B. Davidson, in "Florian."
