

Represent Alma Maters at College Booth at Fair

Thursday of this week is Mount Holyoke day at the Woman's College board booth at A Century of Progress, with the following women serving as hostesses: Mrs. Chester D. Masters and Miss Jean Fox of Winnetka, Mrs. Elwood Hansmann of Glencoe, and Miss Helen Mills.

Radcliffe has its day Friday, and is sending Mrs. Ralph Crandall and Mrs. E. H. McDermott of Evanston, Mrs. H. E. Gregg, and Miss Florence Baumrucher.

Mrs. C. C. Hamilton, Mrs. J. Nate, Jr., Mrs. P. W. Dunn, and Mrs. J. S. Bliss will represent Randolph-Macon at the Fair Saturday.

Miss Rachel Roberts, president of the Chicago Rockford club, will be one of her college's four representatives at the booth Sunday, the others being Miss Ada Sitterly, Miss Louise Jaros, and Miss Barbara Schmidt.

The hostesses August 6, will be Mrs. John C. Kerr, Mrs. Frederick Mueller, Miss Carrie Maude Jones, and Mrs. Roswell Christman, all Simmons alumnae.

Mrs. Donald Jones of Winnetka, president of the Evanston-North Shore Smith club, is one of those who will represent Smith college August 7. Mrs. Fred Heuchling, Mrs. Walter E. Miller, and Mrs. T. D. Paul are the others.

Wednesday, August 8, is Sweet Briar day at the College Board booth, and the hostesses appointed are Miss Harriette Williams of Kenilworth, Mrs. John C. Cook and Mrs. Horace V. Condit of Evanston, and Miss Mary Lewis.

Trinity, Vassar, and Wellesley will send representatives August 9, 10, and 11, respectively. Wellesley's hostesses will be Miss Anne Steinbrecher, Mrs. Rupert Brunkow, Miss Dora Dixon, and Miss Margaret Broomell.

Wilmette Young People Attend M. E. Conference

A group of Wilmette young people from the Epworth league of the Wilmette Methodist church arrived home Sunday after spending a week at the Young People's conference at Webster, Ind., said to be the largest young people's conference of its kind. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Norton A. Booz, 919 Forest avenue, and M. S. Harvey, assistant minister at the Wilmette Methodist church. The members of the party were: Helen, Anna Marie and Julia Booz, Betty and Frances Collins, Betty Rose, Eleanor and Marge Kresge, Betty McNulty, Virginia Green, Virginia Ann Snorf, Don and Jack Millett, Stanley and Wayne Cochran, Ted Pearse, Ed Snyder, Bigelow Haley, Bob Bollinger, Foster Gilgis, and Arthur Woerner.

N. C. E. Alumnae to Meet at Lake Geneva

Mrs. George Herbert Betts, 422 Davis street, Evanston is offering her beautiful summer home, The Birches, at Lake Geneva, for the August 7 meeting of the North Shore Alumnae chapter of the National College of Education. It is not often that a meeting is graced with a Lake Geneva setting, hence this promises to be a real delight.

This summer's meetings have attracted an unusual attendance that forecasts a successful season for the North Shore chapter under the direction, recently assumed, of Mrs. Allan J. Melichar of Rogers Park.

Skokie Valley Members at D. A. R. Day at Fort

Among the members of the Skokie Valley chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution present at the annual D. A. R. day at Fort Sheridan July 30, were Mrs. J. Kelso Farley, Jr., regent, Mrs. Charles S. Jackson, Mrs. George H. Weaver, Mrs. Otto M. Ruth, Mrs. Wilfred A. Nabors, Mrs. George T. Leach, Mrs. David R. DeCamp, and Mrs. Walter Gore Mitchell.

In the morning the D. A. R. attended the drill on the parade grounds. Luncheon followed the drill. In the afternoon the Daughters met on the bluff above the lake and had an impromptu meeting under the direction of Mrs. Julian Goodhue, the state regent, who spoke of the hostessing at Mount Vernon. August 17 and August 18, are the days when members of the Skokie Valley chapter will act as hostesses there.

The officers of the post told about the work at the fort and answered questions. The young girl from Carmi who had won the gold medal and a week's entertainment at the fair for her patriotic essay on "My Favorite Colonial Hero" read the excellent paper which she had written on Nathan Hale. At 3 o'clock a reception was held in the Officers club.

Summer Bridge Popular at Chicago College Club

Bridge parties are being held at the Chicago College club the five Wednesdays in August. Play begins at 2 o'clock, and refreshments are served at the end of the afternoon. Reservations are to be made at the club.

Tuesday, August 14, the club's sketch class will hold a luncheon in the Trustees' lounge at A Century of Progress, in the southeast wing of the Hall of Science. After luncheon there will be a sketching expedition in the Fair grounds. Reservations must be made at the club by the preceding Monday, it is announced. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

The club's dining room closed August 1, and will reopen September 17.

Entertain for Visitors

Miss Elaine Hoyt of Germantown, Pa., and Miss Ruth Jane Marine of Philadelphia returned home Sunday after completing a month's visit as the guest of Ananelle Barrett of 1231 Greenwood avenue. The three girls were friends at the Stevens school, Germantown, Pa. Before leaving last week-end the girls were guests of honor at a luncheon Saturday at the home of Georgia Bettinghaus of 1231 Ashland avenue. Saturday night the Barretts entertained at a farewell party in their honor at the Lido dinner dance at Shawnee Country club. Mrs. Barrett, Ananelle, and Rosemary, made a trip to the east a month ago and brought Miss Hoyt and Miss Marine back with them at that time.

Garden Club Tea

Mrs. Arthur Ruf, 236 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, will be hostess to the Kenilworth Garden club at tea Friday. The annual competition of flower arrangement among members will be held in the Rufs' garage.

The north shore group of the Chicago alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta will meet for a luncheon bridge Monday at the home of Mrs. Lewis B. Ermeling, 1305 Greenwood avenue.
