OPENS CHICAGO SHOP

J. A. Ward, furrier and women's tailor, who formerly had a shop in Wilmette, is now located at Diana court, 540 N. Michigan avenue, Chicago. Mr. Ward moved into the city, he said, to keep in closer touch with the trend of fashions so that he will be in a position to serve better his north shore patrons.

CIRCUS SATURDAY

Catharine Schreiber, Priscella Noyes, and Barbara Henderson, all of Kenilworth, will entertain their friends at a circus Saturday in Catharine's back yard at 320 Abbotsford road Kenilworth.

Thomas Grisamore, Jr., 411 Lake avenue, returned home Saturday after completing six weeks of training at the R. O. T. C. camp at Ft. Snelling, Minn.

Optimists Present CCC Trophy at Camp Tonight

Tonight (Thursday) the Wilmette Optimist club will present its trophy, which is awarded each month to the company at the CCC camp at Harms and Glenview roads which ranks highest in conduct in the field. The trophy goes this month to Co. 608, commanded by Lieut. Harold Creamer. This company has won the trophy three times out of five, which is a commendable record. The trophy will be presented by President Alder R. Tighe at a dinner to be given at the camp. Following the dinner and presentation there will be an indoor ball game between members of the club and officers of the CCC.

Mrs. I. A. Davis of Dallas, Texas, is the house guest of Mrs. John W. Roddick, 722 Roger avenue, Kenilworth, for several weeks.
