

DANCE TEACHER

On September 18 Miss Alice Stade of 1500 Washington avenue, Wilmette, will re-open her classes in ballet, toe, and tap in cooperation with the Central-Laurel and the Logan-Howard Parent-Teacher associations.

This year Miss Stade will also have special classes for high school pupils who are interested in dancing. During the summer vacation Miss Stade studied with several prominent teachers and made plans for a special children's Fairy Tale ballet to be presented at Christmas time.

TO WINTER IN WEST

Miss Jean Fisher of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette, accompanied by her mother, left yesterday for Colorado to spend the winter. Mrs. Fisher has been very ill and only recently left the Evanston hospital. She hopes to regain her health in the west, and Miss Fisher, in order to be near her mother, will attend the University of Colorado at Boulder.
