

HAROLD LLOYD

Pictures of this famous star when he was 16 and wanted to be a prize fighter—

When he first started wearing his famous shell-rimmed glasses—

In the scene from "Safety Last" when he hung from the hand of a huge clock on top of a building—

And the story of his first attempt to crash the movies, the actor he imitated in his first pictures, and of how he became the richest male star of Hollywood.

next Saturday in HOLLYWOOD
UNMASKED

The Photogravure Section of
THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS

REGULAR FEATURES IN THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS THAT MAKE IT "THE BEST WRITTEN NEWSPAPER IN AMERICA"

● Howard Vincent O'Brien
 "All Things Considered"

● Westbrook Pegler
 Brilliant Humor and Satire

● Robert J. Casey
 The Best Reporting

● Lloyd Lewis
 The Theater

● Mignon
 "Things That Make Women More Beautiful"

● Genevieve Forbes Herrick
 "In Capitol Letters"

● Clark Rodenbach
 The Movies

● Ely Culbertson
 Contract

... AND THE LARGEST CORPS OF EXCLUSIVE CORRESPONDENTS REPRESENTING ANY CHICAGO NEWSPAPER IN THE FOREIGN FIELD