

Opening Nursery School

Miss Virginia French, at the left, and Miss Mary Elizabeth (Libby) Townsend, announce the opening of a Nursery school on October 1, in the Townsend residence at 1337 Ashland avenue, Wilmette.

Education Topic for Cook County Clubs

The Cook County Federation of Women's Clubs, of which Mrs. Burnett D. Warner is president, begins its thirty-seventh year Monday, September 24, at 10:30 o'clock, meeting in the Palmer House, in Room 7, on the third floor, with Mrs. John Van Wakeman as chairman of the day.

Arnold R. Barr, formerly president of the City club, will speak on "Needs of Changes in the Illinois Constitution." Mrs. George A. MacCorkle, president of the Children's Aid society, will speak on "A scholarship in Clothing." Luncheon is at 12:45.

At 2, William J. Bogan, superintendent of the Chicago public schools, will speak on the latest developments in "Educational Affairs."

Miss Irene Kavin, deputy chief probation officer of the Juvenile Court of Cook county, will speak on "Education of the Child Who is a Behavior Problem."

Miss Mary Herrick, vice-chairman of the department of education of the Cook County Federation of Women's Clubs, is to talk on "Current Events Pertaining to Education."

Mrs. James Oldshue, state chairman of education, will be guest of honor.

Harvest Home Party

With its background shiny black, with silver letters offsetting its soft red design, of traditional corn shocks and pumpkin and its clever S. R. moon, a striking announcement comes from Sunset Ridge Country club telling of its annual harvest home dinner dance Saturday evening of this week. Dinner service will begin at 8, the cocktail hour is from 8 to 9, with dancing from 9:30 until 1:30.

Convalescing

Peggy Magie, daughter of the John Q. Magies of 2815 Blackhawk road, Indian Hill estates, is recuperating at home from an operation for appendicitis. She was brought home from the Evanston hospital Friday of last week, just a week after the operation was performed.

For Pen Women

A program will be given for the benefit of the Northern Illinois branch of the National League of American Pen Women in the studio of Baroness Violet Wenner, an artist of renown, at 619 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, Thursday afternoon of this week at 3 o'clock. The baroness, herself, is giving the entire program, showing artistic versatility by giving both an easel talk and a group of harp selections.

Circle Hostess

The East End circle of the Congregational church is meeting on Monday, September 24, with Mrs. Charles S. McCoy, 785 Willow road, Winnetka. Mrs. J. Nye Macalister and Mrs. David J. Davis are assisting hostesses.

Tea for Bride-to-Be

Mrs. Charles Henry Brown, 809 Lake avenue, entertained at a handkerchief shower and tea on Tuesday of last week in honor of Miss Ruth Holloway of Glencoe who is to be an October bride.

WORLD'S FAIR DIRECT

by

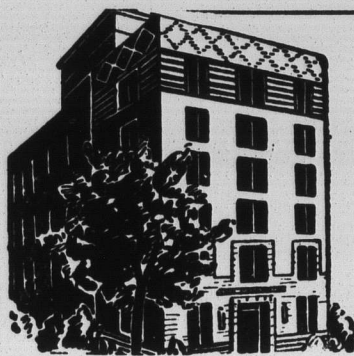

No "extras" for taxis or transfers — get off your North Shore Line train right there! There are plenty of trains throughout the day.

2-DAY ROUND TRIP
from WILMETTE

only

50c

(Kenilworth 55c)

THE PEMBRIDGE

Evanston's Finest Moderate Priced Hotel

A Permanent Home
in the Rest Zone

MANOR HOUSE DINING ROOM

CLAUDE A. WARD

Managing Director

1406 Chicago Ave., Evanston Gre. 3500

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

STEVENS

proves that

"You needn't be an heiress"

to be well dressed

MATLASSE used for this new silk afternoon dress, seems to shout "Paris" with its every ripple and thread. It lends itself beautifully to the simple but oh-so-knowing lines of this frock—the kind you can wear and wear and always appear like a million dollars!

$29.75

Edgar A. Stevens, Inc.

E V A N S T O N