Noted Church Worker Joins Cong'l Staff Here

Mrs. William T. McElveen of the Greenwood Inn, Evanston, has been engaged as church secretary and minister's assistant in the First Congregational church of Wilmette. She has served in a similar capacity in the First Congregational church, Evanston, and as director of religious education in the First Congregational church of Montclair, N. J. She succeeds Miss Lois Cook, who has removed to Bloomington, Ind.

Mrs. McElveen is native to the north shore, and her husband, the late Dr. McElveen, had distinguished pastorates in Evanston, New York, Boston, Chicago and other leading cities.

Mrs. McElveen has recently moved from Atlanta, Ga., where she had been living for several years.

Mrs. Laurence Thompson Knott, with Susanne and Laurence, Jr., arrived Monday to spend several weeks visiting Mrs. Knott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Crowe, of 234 Raleigh road, Kenilworth. Mr. Knott will arrive from the east later.

H. P. Woman's Club to Sponsor Contract Series

Mrs. Maxine C. Miner is giving a course in contract bridge under the auspices of the finance committee of the Highland Park Woman's club, commencing October 3. The lessons are open to anyone in the community interested in improving her game.

Mrs. Miner, who holds certificates under leading contract bridge systems, has been a teacher of bridge in leading hotels, a lecturer for Woman's clubs, and has done radio work for several years. She comes to the club direct from a very successful season at the Signal Mountain hotel in Chattanooga.

Contract bridge, the club announces, is included in the curriculum of a prominent eastern college and is taking the place of some mathematics in one of the middle west universities.

Information concerning Mrs. Miner's course in Highland Park may be obtained from Mrs. Dwight H. Davis of 550 South Linden avenue, Highland Park.

Miss Patty Dyar of Cleveland, who has often visited her grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Kasten, 2001 Thornwood avenue, is entering Wellesley college this fall. Her mother, who is not living now, was the former Marie Kasten of Kenilworth. She was also a Wellesley alumnae, class of 1910.

Henry Von DerHoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Von DerHoff, 332 Oak circle, is leaving next Monday for Ripon college in Wisconsin where he is to be a sophomore this year. The Von DerHoffs recently returned from their summer cottage at Green Lake Mich., where they have gone for the past ten years.

Miss Mildred Waugh, who finished New Trier last June, has entered Oberlin college this autumn. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank Waugh, 812 Ashland avenue. Mildred left last Thursday for school.

A daughter, Constance Naomi, weighing nine pounds was born at the Evanston hospital on Monday, September 17, to Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Anderson, 1416 Isabella street, Wilmette.

Miss Eleanor Ricks, 1236 Forest avenue, has returned from a visit of ten days with Miss Jeannette Worth of Amboy, Ill. Miss Worth teaches in the grade school at Amboy.

Miss Catherine Wagner, 1700 Washington avenue, left last Monday for New York and then sailed for Bermuda on a two weeks' vacation trip.

Howard L. Fogg, Jr., of 713 Greenwood avenue left last Sunday for Hanover, N. H., to enter Dartmouth. His father was a graduate of Dartmouth in the class of 1910.

The George Shipman family of 432 Warwick road, Kenilworth, have returned from their summer vacation spent at their cottage at Wabaningo, Mich.
