New Welfare Members to Be Guests at Tea

A sewing meeting of the Kenilworth center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago was held at the Kenilworth Union church Tuesday, with a business session following the next day at the home of Mrs. Cedric Smith, 205 Essex road, Kenilworth. A tea for new members will be held October 17, at which Miss Nona Jane Handwork will be hostess at her home, 201 Dempster street, Evanston. The newly elected social chairman, Mrs. Lester Dunbar, is actively engaged in plans for fall parties.

Letters are being sent out to those persons who had not responded to the last plea for Baby week donations. It is the sincere wish of the society that residents of Kenilworth will respond generously so that the work of caring for unfortunate children can be carried on.
