Kathleen Webster, Robert Kuhl, Jr., Are Wed Saturday

A gown of deep purple velvet, buttoned down the back with velvet buttons, and made with long slit sleeves, was worn by Miss Kathleen Mary Webster of Winnetka Saturday afternoon when she became the bride of Robert Emerson Kuhl, Jr., of Evanston. The bride's cloth of gold hat was worn with a short stiff veil, and she carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses and white sweet peas.

Miss Nancy Webster, the bride's sister and only attendant, was in a brown velvet gown made with gold sleeves, and wore a gold hat. Her bouquet was of the colors of the bride's gown, purple sweet peas and yellow roses. Mrs. William D. Webster of 1496 Edgewood lane, Winnetka, the bride's mother, was in gold crepe, with which she wore a brown hat and brown shoes. She and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Robert Emerson Kuhl of Evanston, wore corsages of gardenias. The latter wore a black dress with gold.

Hall Lippincott of Evanston was the best man, and the ushers were Monroe Turner of Evanston and Nate Pancoast of Wilmette.

White chrysanthemums were on the altar of the Lady chapel of St. Luke's pro-cathedral, where, at 3:30 o'clock, the Very Rev. Gerald G. Moore, dean of the cathedral, read the service before about sixty guests. The same guests attended the reception which followed the service. White and yellow chrysanthemums decorated the Pompeian room of the Orington hotel, where the reception was held, and the same flowers were on the table, where Mrs. James T. Fulker of Evanston and the bride's aunt, Mrs. A. M. Lynn of Oak Park, poured. Included in the receiving line at the reception was the bridegroom's sister, Miss Jean Kuhl, who wore a black gown with a white lace collar.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhl will be at home late this month in the Marshall Field Garden apartments.

Charity Ball for Sunbeam League November 17

The Sunbeam league announces that its annual Charity ball will be held on Saturday, November 17, at the Hotel Stevens.

The expenses of the kindergarten for sick and crippled children maintained by the league are defrayed entirely by the profits of this party, the annual charity card party, membership dues, and voluntary contributions.

The organization was incorporated twenty-two years ago by a small group of young women who recognized the need of mental diversion for children confined to charity wards of children's hospitals. Brightly colored scrap books and toys were brought to entertain the children; the "story lady," Miss Georgene Faulkner, spent many happy hours at their bedsides bringing fairy tales and humorous rhymes to their undeveloped imaginations; Carrie Jacobs Bond contributed her talent to the growing cause. The need of this type of work became so apparent that paid teachers were employed to direct the recreation of these afflicted babies.

Today the Sunbeam league of Chicago holds an enviable position in the list of incorporated philanthropic organizations, is endorsed by the Chicago Association of Commerce, and holds its monthly meetings at the Hotel Stevens, it is announced.

The outstanding achievement of the year was the opening of a kindergarten at Children's Memorial hospital. The league also enlarged its unit at Spalding school for the spastic children of pre-school age. The waiting list for this school is very long. These children are not eligible for public school training until the age of 5. Under supervision of trained teachers they are taught to use their crippled hands and legs to the very best advantage.

The results at Spalding school have been exceptionally gratifying for without this intense treatment at an early age, most of these children would never give evidence of possessing the mental standard necessary to admit them to the grades, the league announces. Each case which responds to treatment is a life salvaged from a physical handicap sufficiently severe to falsely indicate the lack of mental ability.

The league also supports two kindergartens at Cook County Children's hospital, one at Home for Convalescent Women and Children, and also one at Martha Washington Home for Dependent Crippled Children, caring for about 14,000 children yearly.
