

Wilmette O. E. S. Opens Bazaar to Public on Friday

The Wilmette chapter of the Eastern Star will hold its annual autumn bazaar and festival in the Wilmette Masonic temple Friday of this week. The door will open to the public at 10:30 in the morning and the affair will last until after the evening card party. This promises to be one of the biggest events of the kind ever staged by the local chapter.

Mrs. A. G. Ackermann is matron, and Mrs. D. J. Dick is general chairman of the festival. Co-chairmen and assistants include the following: Mesdames Elliott Youngberg, Harry Sanders, of Winnetka, August Kuelzow, J. O. Converse, O. D. Jones, Roy McIlrath, Charles Hosken, Arthur Bloom, Fred Birr, Guy Morgan, M. K. Thatcher, A. H. Meyers, W. K. Oakwood, William Jones, J. H. Jogl, and Elmer Lundin. They urge the public to come and bring their friends for lunch, dinner and bridge. Incidentally, it is an opportunity to get Christmas shopping done early, for the various booths will hold treasures too numerous to mention. There will be events of interest for every member of the family the committee stresses.

Reservations for card tables may be made with Mrs. O. D. Jones, and for the evening dinner with Mrs. J. O. Converse. Publicity had been handled by Mrs. Robert McClure and Mrs. A. L. Christy.

Dr. H. G. Smith to Give Review at M. E. Church

Dr. Horace G. Smith, president of Garrett Biblical institute, will conclude the series of book reviews presented by the Woman's guild of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church on Friday, October 15, at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Dr. Smith is well known to the village at large as a former pastor of the church and his friends will delight in this opportunity to greet him. His skill and inimitable manner of presenting a book, however, will be a real drawing card to book lovers and will prove a fitting climax to this excellent series of reviews, the committee announces.

The book chosen is "The Recovery of Ideals," by Dr. Georgia Harkness, in which the author traces the stages by which an individual may come to a personal experience of idealism.

Mrs. Clifford Ives, who has managed the series, recommends this particular review as being something different and eminently worth while.

Invite Villagers to Sew for Children's Home

To this day of sewing the club invites all women of Wilmette, whether club members or not.

Work, commencing at 11 in the morning, is followed by a hot luncheon at noon. Sewing resumes after a luncheon hour talk, which, this Friday, will be given by Mrs. Frederick Matson, a member of the board of the home. The day's work ends about 3:30 in the afternoon.

Mrs. D. R. Kabele is chairman of sewing, with her committee members, Mrs. Scott Smith, Mrs. John Petaja, Mrs. E. D. Knudtson, and Mrs. Frank Hayson. Mrs. George Larson is luncheon chairman.
