

LOGAN-HOWARD P. T. A.

Child Study Program

The Child Study group of the Logan-Howard Parent-Teacher association will hold a meeting, the first of the school year, Tuesday afternoon, October 19, at 1:30 o'clock in the Howard school auditorium.

Mrs. Evelyn Duvall, executive director of the Chicago Association for Child Study and Parent Education, will conduct the meeting and her subject is entitled, "Discipline That Helps and Hinders." In her talk, Mrs. Duvall will tell of "the kind of discipline that always works." Mrs. Duvall has worked along the lines of parent education for many years and is well known as a lecturer.

In November, Mrs. Duvall will address this group on "Guidance for Today's Children."

The meetings of the Child Study Group are of particular interest to mothers of children between the ages of 8 to 14. There is no admission charge and they are held at the school the third Tuesday of each month.

Pre-School Meeting

Tuesday evening, October 12, the Pre-School circle, which is also sponsored by the Logan-Howard Parent-Teacher association, held its first meeting at the home of Mrs. L. F. Ball, 750 Park avenue. Mrs. Paul Gartnercoal, president, presided and Mrs. Lenoir Hood Miller, who conducts the Sunshine Corner Nursery School, was the guest speaker.

The Pre-School circle holds meetings the second Tuesday of each month, in the evenings at the homes of its members. Mothers of children of pre-school and kindergarten age are invited to attend.

Start Dancing Oct. 19

Mrs. W. J. Benner, chairman of Ball-room dancing classes, announces the new term will commence Tuesday, October 19. Mrs. Theron Woolson of Winnetka, will again conduct the dancing school. Sixth and seventh grade pupils will meet in the afternoon on Tuesdays after regular school hours, and eighth grade pupils will meet in the evening of the same day.

Dr. John Washburne to Give 5 Lectures

Faculty of the Winnetka public schools this week invited teachers from educational institutions along the north shore to attend a series of five lectures and discussions, to be held Monday to Friday afternoons of next week inclusive at the Skokie school, 520 Glendale avenue.

Dr. John N. Washburne, professor of education and child psychology at Syracuse university, and brother of Carleton W. Washburne, Winnetka school superintendent, has been engaged by the board of education to discuss learning from the standpoint of modern schools of psychology.

"The discussions will be practical in character," it was announced, "and will be based on Dr. Washburne's thoroughgoing knowledge of the place of the situation-response psychology and behaviorism in the modern education program."

Alfred Brown Has Part in Lake Forest Drama

Alfred Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brown, 1539 Highland avenue, Wilmette, has recently been awarded a role in Eugene O'Neill's play "Ah Wilderness," to be presented by the Garrick club, Lake Forest college dramatic organization, October 27 and 28. Brown is a senior at Lake Forest, and has taken a prominent part in speech and dramatic work. Last year he had leading roles in "The Bishop Misbehaves," "Ceiling Zero," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street," and "Good News."
