

BISHOP OXNAM WILL LECTURE IN WINNETKA

Appears on Program Given for Benefit of College Scholarship Fund

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam will speak at the Skokie school Winnetka, Tuesday evening, November 30, at 8:15 o'clock. He is the third lecturer in the Scholarship Fund series of the Graduate Teachers college of Winnetka, and follows George Sokolsky and Alec Templeton who appeared earlier.

There are few speakers like Bishop Oxnam. North shore people who have heard him cannot understand why he has not been brought to the shore before and people who have heard the reports of his talk before the Chicago Sunday Evening club recently are extremely anxious to be present Tuesday night.

Outstanding Authority

Bishop Oxnam is a religious leader, an educator, an author, and a public lecturer. He studied at the University of Southern California, at Harvard, at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and in Japan, China and India. Every summer he travels abroad to the key spots of the world. He was a member of the American delegation to Russia in 1926 and to the Japanese Education Commission in 1932. He served on the faculties of the University of Southern California, Boston university, and for eight years was the president of DePauw university. In 1936 he was elected Bishop of the Omaha area of the Methodist Episcopal church. He is the youngest member of the board.

Bishop Oxnam has attained national prominence through his keen insight into world problems. His audiences are always large and enthusiastic, not only over the material which he brings them, but over his rapid, clear, humorous and original style of speaking. He is a man with something to say and the ability to say it. On Tuesday he will discuss "American 'If' Moments," crucial points in American contemporary history, and will interpret them, doubtless, with keen penetration.

Single Tickets Available

For those who do not hold tickets for the entire series single admissions will be sold at the door. The lecture begins promptly at 8:15.

The last lecture in the series will be given by Louis Untermeyer, poet and anthologist, Tuesday, January 11.

N. U. CHOIR TO SING IN WILMETTE

Founded in 1906 by the late Peter Christian Lutkin, the Northwestern university A Cappella choir, (above) which will appear in Wilmette the evening of December 8, is one of the oldest college organizations of its kind in America.

The choir has played a significant role in the development of the art of unaccompanied singing in this country, according to critics, and as early as 1908 performed intricate numbers, presenting Mendelssohn's "Elijah" in the first North Shore Festival, now known as the Northwestern university music festival, which was held that year.

Each year the choral organization has enlarged its repertory to include some of the greatest works of the world's composers. Program-building has been the aim of the present director, Max T. Krone and critics agree that he has achieved a versatility of selections which strengthen the choir's appearances immeasurably and lend a dramatic quality and diversity peculiar to the a cappella group.

During the 1937-1938 season, the engagements of the A Cappella will be limited in number and the Wilmette concert will be the annual Christmas appearance of the choristers. The group will sing in the sanctuary of the Wilmette Parish Methodist Episcopal church beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

The Christmas concert is being sponsored by Theta Upsilon Rho in cooperation with Northwestern university.
