

Virginia Rich Becomes Bride of Sydney Date

Before an improvised altar, arranged, with white chrysanthemums and greenery, at the fireplace in the living room of the Stanley Rich home at 461 Maple street, Winnetka, Miss Virginia Rich was married Saturday afternoon to Sydney Stoa Date, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lamson H. Date of 677 Walden road, Winnetka. The ceremony, read by the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard before members of the two families, was followed by a small reception.

With her white satin period gown, the bride wore a tulle veil of fingertip length, and carried a bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. Her only attendant, Mrs. John Holloway of Evanston, the former Jane Dement of Kenilworth, wore a rose colored slipper satin period dress, and carried roses to match her gown. Sam Rockwell of Winnetka was Mr. Date's best man.

The wedding guests included the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holsapple, who came from their home in Scarsdale, N. Y., Thursday of last week for the event.

The bridal dinner was given Friday evening at Sheridan Shore Yacht club, by the bride's father.

When they return late this week from their wedding trip, Mr. Date and his bride will be at home in Winnetka at 461 Maple street.

Day Is Set for Wedding of Virginia Lee Graham

Miss Virginia Lee Graham has chosen Saturday, January 15, for her wedding day. At that time she will become the bride of Charles Riggs Sprowl of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orr Sprowl of Lansing, Mich.

Mrs. Thomas Rogers Wigglesworth of Shaker Heights, Cleveland, Ohio, will attend her sister as matron of honor. James Allen Sprowl of Hubbard Woods will serve as best man for his brother.

Miss Graham is the daughter of the Francis Stevens Grahams, whose home is in Glencoe, but who have been spending the past two years in an apartment in Evanston.

Give Prenuptial Party on Thanksgiving Day

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman E. Goss, Jr., are opening their home at 520 Seventh street, Thanksgiving afternoon and evening, to their friends invited to see the wedding presents of their daughter, Miss Lisbeth Goss, who is to be married to William S. Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Shepherd of 315 Fourteenth street.

Other prenuptial parties not previously announced include a miscellaneous household shower given for the bride last Friday evening by Mrs. George Voss in her new home in Winnetka, and a pantry shelf shower at which Mrs. Robert MacLean, 2900 Lake avenue, was hostess Saturday night.

Tea for Parish Women

At Shawnee Country club Tuesday afternoon, November 30, from 3 to 5 o'clock, the Rev. Martin D. McNamara, pastor of St. Francis Xavier church, assisted by the Rev. John J. O'Mara, will be host at a tea in honor of the women of the parish who assisted in the preparations for the recent Hallowe'en party which was a splendid success, socially and financially.

Will Bring Yule Gifts to Garden Club Meeting

The December meeting of the Wilmette Garden club of which Mrs. Charles Van Deursen is president, will be held Friday, December 3, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. H. W. Drucker, 1125 Mohawk road, Wilmette.

"Travel Pictures" will be the subject of the program in charge of Mrs. A. C. Youngberg. Mrs. W. A. Kendrick is the program chairman of the club.

Gifts will be brought to Mrs. Drucker's for the Christmas donation of the club to the Chicago Plant, Flower, and Fruit guild, for which Mrs. James C. Leaton is the club's representative.
