

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Select Orchestra for New Year's Eve at Shawnee

Ralph Foote's eleven piece orchestra will play for the dancing at Shawnee Country club New Year's eve when the members and their many friends celebrate the departure of 1937 and the arrival of 1938 at the club's big annual New Year's party. A large number has taken advantage of this opportunity to entertain parties of guests, and the evening promises to be well attended and a gala event.

The affair will commence with dinner, and as the dancing continues and the morning hours approach a mid-night supper will also be served. Meanwhile Ralph Seabury, a caricaturist, will entertain the merry-makers. Strolling musicians are to form a part of the evening's festive atmosphere, and also entertaining will be the dancers, the Erselle Sisters, and Dolores Donar, a singer, dancer, and accordion player.

The Wilmette members of Shawnee who will entertain large parties that night are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lippincott, Edgar Howard, Charles Ullrich, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard S. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin A. Blietz, Charles Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Pancoast, Stephen Williams, Jr., and Ward Kessler.

Still others who will be hosts or hostesses are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rolle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doepel, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dillon, and Mr. and Mrs. John Wittbold, all of Winnetka, and Bill and Joe Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Simmons, of Kenilworth.

Junior Garden Club to Meet Twice in January

Two in place of the usual one meeting will be held in January by the Kenilworth Junior Garden club. The first of these on Wednesday, January 5, will be at the home of Mrs. James R. D. Stevenson, Jr., 132 Oxford road, Kenilworth. The second will be the third Wednesday in the month. A series of papers on various garden topics is being presented by the members this winter, and the speakers for next week are Mrs. Alfred McDougal, Jr., and Mrs. Sam Clark. Their subject will be "Border Perennials."

P. E. O. Hostess

Mrs. S. E. Leeman of 1004 Lake avenue had as her guests one day last week, thirty-two members of P.E.O., Chapter A.

Indian Hill Celebration

New Year's at Indian Hill club will be celebrated by open house from 7 until 10 o'clock the night of January 1.

Is Mrs. Frank Shaner McCabe

In a dress of white satin with high neck and long train, and wearing a long tulle veil held to her head with a cluster of white roses and lilies of the valley, Miss Audrey Jane Truitt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ruliff Lawrence Truitt of Naperville was married to Frank Shaner McCabe, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. McCabe of 616 Isabella street, Wilmette, in the First Congregational church at Naperville on November 27.

Two hundred fifty guests witnessed the wedding, at which Mrs. Harry Horne of Champaign was her sister's only attendant, and Selim Tideman of Wilmette was best man. Ushers were Harry Horne and Norman Lewis, Jr., of Champaign, Roger Palenske of Wilmette, Jack A. Hansen of Evanston, Frank V. Brauch of Winnetka, and Aubrey Cookman of Chicago.

After spending their honeymoon in Florida, the bride and bridegroom are now living on Ridge avenue in Evanston.

Paul Stone-Raymor, Ltd.

Christmas Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bower, 1216 Ashland avenue, entertained at dinner Christmas day. They had as their guests Mr. Bower's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Bower of Chicago, and their son-in-law, James L. Surpless, and children, and Mr. Surpless's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Surpless.

For Wisconsin Alumnae

The January luncheon meeting of the Wisconsin Alumnae Club of Chicago will be held in Mandel Brothers' Ivory room, January 8, at 12:45 o'clock. Miss Bertha Weeks, one of our own alumnae members, will give her "Talk on Williamsburg."

At Sunset Ridge

A buffet a la Russe from 10:30 until 12, will begin the New Year's eve celebration at Sunset Ridge club. Dancing will take place during the evening, and Russian appetizers will be served with cocktails from an especially constructed three-tiered table. Beginning at 12, a buffet supper will be served, and from 3 until guests leave New Year's morning, breakfast will be served.

Holiday Tea

Miss Phyllis Carleton gave a tea Monday afternoon at her home, 1103 Forest avenue, for many of her friends who are on the north shore for the Christmas holidays. Most of the guests are school friends of Miss Carleton at DePaul university.

Methodist Guild Reveals Program for Next Meeting

The Woman's guild of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church will hold the first meeting of the new year on January 6.

Sewing at 10 o'clock in the morning and an executive session at 10:30 will be followed by luncheon at 12 o'clock served by the Fifth division, Mrs. M. C. Greigg, chairman.

The afternoon session presided over by Mrs. A. L. Fuller, president, will be opened by a devotional period led by Mrs. Roy M. Lundin. Miss Bertha Knapp of Wesley Memorial hospital will give interesting accounts of the new hospital, a Methodist project.

The program furnished by the Sixth division with Mrs. A. H. Fuessle in charge, will be given by Mrs. Maxine Stetson of the American Academy of Dramatic Art. Prominent in north shore little theater groups and experienced in radio work at the National Broadcasting company, Mrs. Stetson is well qualified to present the play "I'd Rather Be Right," by Kaufman and Hart, an hilarious satire on the current administration in Washington. The public is cordially invited to hear this program.

Arden Shore's Annual Meeting Held Jan. 10

The annual meeting of the Arden Shore association will be held at noon on Monday, January 10, at the Chicago Athletic association. After luncheon Mrs. Robert B. Gregory, honorary president of the board of directors, is to tell some of her "camp recollections" of the past thirty years. For more than three decades, Mrs. Gregory and her sister, Mrs. William E. Casselberry of Lake Forest, have been among Arden Shore's most generous benefactors, giving not only money, but time, effort, interest, and enthusiastic support to the camp just north of Lake Bluff.

In addition to Mrs. Gregory's talk, Miss Anna Belle Ferrier, executive head of the summer and winter camps, will give one of her delightful resumés of the year's activities. Mrs. Theron Colton will tell of the wonderful work that is being done in and around Chicago by the nature teachers she has trained at Arden Shore, and the new board for 1938 will be announced.

The fifty boys at the winter camp, having had a grand time at Great Lakes on Christmas day, as dinner guests of Admiral Hayne Ellis and his staff, are now looking forward to New Year's day, when they go to Fort Sheridan to be entertained at dinner by General Philip Peyton and his staff.

Members of the Wilmette board and its associate members are requested to make luncheon reservations with their chairman, Mrs. Roy R. Marquardt of 218 Woodbine avenue.