LECTURER ON ART

Ulrich A. Middeldorf, assistant professor of art at the University of Chicago, will speak on "Artists and Artisans in the Italian Renaissance" when he gives the next in the series of art lectures in the North Shore Art league studio of Winnetka Community House Friday evening, January 14. The series is sponsored by the league.

The lecture will mark the opening of a collection of etchings, a Black and White Loan exhibition shown through the courtesy of the Chicago Society of Etchers.

Professor Middeldorf was educated at the University of Berlin, and was for many years curator in the Institute of Art Research at Florence, Italy.

TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Anna Seavert, 81 years old, aunt of Mrs. Andrew R. Park of 2139 Ridge avenue, Evanston, died Tuesday of last week following a stroke and a brief illness of three days. Mrs. Park is the wife of Andrew R. Park, plumber with offices located at 566 Green Bay road, Winnetka. Funeral services were held Thursday of last week at Hebblethwaite funeral parlors in Evanston with burial in Graceland cemetery. Mrs. Seavert leaves two other nieces, Mrs. Amy Meyers of Highwood, and Miss Ada Peterson who makes her home with the Parks in Evanston.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Davis of 920 Fifteenth street had as their houseguests during the Christmas holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gettinger of Meron, Ind., and their two children. Miss Dorothy Davis returned Sunday to the University of Michigan.

Skokie Company Wins Snell Merit Trophy

Company 607 at Skokie Valley CCC camp, won the Capt Harold W. Snell trophy for meritorious work, for December. Presentation of the trophy will be made at a dinner, Friday evening.

H. M. Bates is the superintendent; Lieut. D. M. Hughes, commander and Lieut. G. A. Sweder, junior officer.

The Snell trophy, a highly coveted honor, is a whale's tooth mounted on a walrus tusk. It was posted in October of last year, for a six months' period.

Each company, as it merits the award, has its name engraved on it, and in April it is to be presented to Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes.

VISIT KIN HERE

Dr. Maude B. Sands, 1024 Central avenue, had as her guest for several days during the Christmas vacation her niece, Miss Anna Blakeman of Ann Arbor, Mich., and her nephew, Ross Core of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutzman moved to the village Wednesday of last week from Chicago and are now at home at 1746 Highland avenue. The Hutzmans have two daughters, Hannah and Marguerite.
